GATCHEL & MANNING PHILA.

Miss Clipper's Anecdotes, Personalities and Comments, CONCERNING STAGE FOLK and Sometimes OTHERS

BY JOSEPHINE GEO.

One of Lew Dockstader's latest methods of attracting the attention of the public was illustrated in the "want-ad" columns of a Denver paper during his December engagement in that city.

The reason for this means of publicity, which he gave at an interview, was that songs sung on the stage in these days must have spectacular back grounds and scenic display to be made popular. Dockstader has one entitled, "Father, Don't Beat Mother with Your Wooden Leg," and this, he argued, needed the proper realistic accompaniment, and, in order to encourage local talent in Denver, caused the following advertisement to appear in the paper:

"Wanted, Male Help,—very disorderly, sad looking, one legged man with embossed features,—of a sunshiny disposition, used to rough family home treatment, indented with light housekeeping scars; must have a fierce and dirty yellow dog; a drinking man with impossible whiskers preferred, but the dog must come sober. Apply today—Ask for Lew Dockstader at the Tabor Grand. Wipe your feet before entering."

One bleary eyed citizen of Denver took the advertisement seriously, and duly applied for the situation, as he could fulfill all the requirements except the dog. However, he declared he knew where he could purchase the animal, if Charlie Wilson, the manager, would advance sixty-three cents on his engagement. He said he had seen a flock of yellow dogs the night before, and that they were chasing a herd of blue monkeys and pink rats.

When he was informed that the "ghost" never walked until the end of the week and that there could be no salary advanced, he sorrowfully departed with the remark that, even when a man was really willing to work, there was always something in the way of his doing so.

The chorus of the beautiful lyric requiring the graphic illustration advertised for, and which Dockstader renders with touching pathos, is the dying request of an only child. The chorus goes as follows:

"Father, don't beat mother with your peg leg any more,
When at night she greets you at our little cabin door;
Father, keep your peg on after I am dead and gone,
Be kind to dear old mother, for you know she isn't strong."

During Dockstader's engagement at the Herald Square, in New York, his friend, "Manny" Friend, the eminent lawyer so well known in the theatrical profession, entered the merry minstrel's dressing room one night, and said:

"Say, Lew, I'm going to quit the legal profession and break into yours. Will you start me?"

"I'll do what I can for you, Manny," said Dockstader to his friend, whose height, by the way, is only five feet. "I hardly know where you would come in though. You don't dance or sing, and much as I admire the amount and quality of your brain, I don't think the dramatic element in it is very great."

"But I don't want to act," said Friend, "I only want to pose."

"Pose!" exclaimed Dockstader, "pose for what?"

"Pose as the giant," said the little lawyer. "You're fooling," said the minstrel, "why, you're only five feet in your shoes."

"That's why I'd make a hit in the part," said Friend, "I'm the smallest giant in the world."

The other day Dockstader met a ballad singer who had been in a company with him many years ago. After pleasant greetings, the seedy looking acquaintance told the more successful minstrel his hard-luck story, with a gentle request for the loan of $5 to help toward the purchase of a ticket to New York.

"I haven't seen the treasurer this morning, so have only a small amount about me," said Dockstader, "but here's $2, if that will help any."

"O, thanks, dear boy," said the hard-up singer, "I'll take the $2, and you can owe me the other $3."

At another time the minstrel star was accosted by an elderly person of the mendicant order near the Marlborough Hotel, where he lives while in New York. Her plea was that she wanted a few cents to contribute to her church.

"Well," said the charitably inclined actor, "here's a dime to give to your church, where I really hope you go every Sunday like a good Christian."

"Every Sunday like a Christian!" exclaimed the woman, indignantly, "It's every morning I go, like a good Catholic!"

A story is related of a young chorus man by one of Col. Savage's "Woodland" company, now in the midst of a successful New York run at the Herald Square. He had studied for the medical profession, but, being totally unfitted for the career, made little progress in his studies, so turned his attention to gaining the small position he now occupies. In a "quiz" by a professor one day, he was asked:

"In a 'hurry case,' where a patient has taken an overdose of a drug that depressed the heart, what would you prescribe?"

"I would give him a tablespoonful of war comics," said the young student, meaning, instead, to give the name of a harmless, but efficient antidote.

Noting a look of consternation on the face of the professor, who, without comment, continued the "quiz," the student began thinking over his reply. Of course, the absurdity of it came to him, and a few minutes later, gaining the attention of the professor, he said:

"In my haste to reply to your question, I prescribed a poison unintentionally. I've now remembered the correct remedy,—may I change my answer?"

"Too late!" said the professor, looking at his watch, "your poor patient has been dead four minutes."

"Say, Charlie," said one of the late Charles Hoyt's managerial friends, "you're one of the sort that don't jolly, you speak out the naked truth whether it pleases or offends."

"Yes," said the playwright, "I'll acknowledge that I'm always frank and truthful."

"Well, then," said his friend, who had just produced a new play, "I'd like your candid opinion about the production. What did you think of the cast? I selected it with great care."

"Well," drawled Hoyt, "there was one on the stage who did great work,—you ought to be proud of him."

"And which one was he?" asked the pleased manager.

"The prompter," was the laconic reply of the caustic Hoyt.

There are two covered stairways to some of the important stations on the new New York subway line. One of these is distinctly marked "EXIT," and though it leads to the train entrance beneath, no passengers are admitted that way. Hundreds of people daily disregard the sign, only to have the annoyance of ascending the long flight of stairs to the entrance and making another trip downward.

The other day a lanky individual, who was unmistakably a country parson on a visit to the city, entered the exit stairway on Broadway, in front of Shanley's. Ascending the same on his way to his office in the New York Theatre building was Louis Werba, the manager. Noting the mistake of the out-of-town divine, Werba nudged the arm of his friend who accompanied him, and said: "Another good thing gone wrong."

The manager of a certain road company had been having considerable trouble with one of the company, who frequently indulged in intoxicants. He determined to have no further annoyance on account of alcohol, and advertised in THE CLIPPER to that effect, with the trite warning, "no boozers need apply."

One of the applicants for the part was an actor whose very appearance proclaimed him a drinking man so plainly that the manager wondered at his assurance in applying for the engagement. However, out of curiosity, but with no intention of engaging the man, he questioned him as to his ability and his experience, which proved to be satisfactory. "Do you drink?" finally asked the manager.

"Never, never, sir," indignantly exclaimed the actor. Then, changing the indignant tones to those denoting hesitation with a wish to oblige, he said: "But on this occasion, sir, if—if, well, if you really insist, why—"

"Not at my expense," interrupted the manager, indicating that the interview was at an end.

ALBERT WALTZ.

Whose picture appears above, is a well known performer on the bicycle. For thirteen weeks last summer he was a favorite at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre, New York City. At present he is in his eighteenth week as a feature act with Hanlon's "Superba."

Notes from "The Sign of the Cross," Western Co., J. W. Canoly, business manager, writes: "Walter Law, in the role of Marcus Superbus, is meeting with remarkable success. His reception at every performance almost reaches an ovation. The supporting cast is excellent, and business has been exceptionally good."

Charles R. Pullen writes: "My daughter, Louella Pullen, of Rentfrow's Jolly Pathfinders, celebrated her ninth birthday at East Liverpool, O., and was remembered by her many friends with some very handsome presents. She is meeting with big success with this company."

QUICKEST LINE TO CLEVELAND.

Leave New York 5.32 P. M., arrive Cleveland 7.15 next morning, Cincinnati 1.30 P. M., Indianapolis 3 P. M., St. Louis 9.45 P. M., by New York Central. Fine service. No excess fare.

World of Players.

Notes from De Mack's Big Show: We are now in our eleventh week on this season and business is good. Mrs. Minnie De Mack was called home very suddenly to attend to her mother, who has been very low, but as she is improving rapidly Mrs. De Mack will soon return to resume her old part of Phoebe, and then things will go in good shape again. We all stopped off at Mr. De Mack's home Christmas and New Years and we all enjoyed ourselves to a finish. Mr. De Mack made everybody with the show a nice present.

Walter Gavanne, business manager for Geo. W. Monroe, in his new musical comedy, "Mrs. Mac, the Mayor," reports good business.

Harry B. Williams (formerly Billy Williams) is playing Happy Hooligan, and closing the show with his specialty, with "Alphonse and Gaston" Co.

Maggie Holloway Fisher, of the Henry Miller Co., was called from Boston on New Year's Day, by news of the sudden death of her sister. Cause, accidental asphyxiation by gas.

Vivian Prescott is to be featured next season under the management of a well known theatrical firm, in a new comedy drama that is being written for her by Herbert Hall Winslow. In all probability the title will be "The Dairy Maid." The time we are informed, is nearly all booked, and the cast will number twenty-six people.

Ida Conquest has built a little theatre at her country place on Long Island, in which to try out her future shows. Miss Conquest calls it "the bungalow theatre." It has a seating capacity of 150 and a 70 foot stage.

The Clement Opera House, Berlin, N. Y., was burned to the ground Jan. 4, at 9.15 P. M. It is not known how the fire originated. Five other buildings were burned. The opera house was valued at $50,000, and was insured for $14,000.

RALSTON AND SON

Are represented in the above cut in the characters of "The Thespian and the Professor," which sketch they are producing with success. Bobby Ralston, the senior member of the team, is the veteran dwarf comedian, well known as the "Funny Little Man with the big voice," who has been before the public for more than twenty-five years, during which time he has played in farce comedy, as well as appearing at the principal vaudeville houses of America and some of the leading music halls of England and the European continent. The junior member of the team is his son, Robert, who is a "chip off the old block," but, as the cut shows, the "chip" has outgrown the "block."

Charles Edward Hellis, of London, Eng., and Amy Erso, a musical director, whose name in private life was Katie A. Ayres, were married at Fultonville, N. Y., Oct. 26, by Rev. Harrison Johnson. Mr. Hellis is of the firm of Hellis & Sons, London, and was principal clown in pantomime at the Drury Lane Theatre for several years. He is at present known professionally as Chas. H. Robinson.

Mrs. Kate Dorney, the wife of Richard Dorney, who was at one time Augustin Daly's manager, died on Saturday, Jan. 7, in St. Vincent's Hospital, New York, and was buried from the Church of the Holy Innocents.

The Moxleys, Joe and Amy, are out of vaudeville at present, owing to the fact that Joe Moxley is playing the part of the slave, of the Queen's door, at the Belasco Theatre, this city, in "Adrea."

Frank E. Merston joins the Frank H. Daniels Co., to do leads and introduce his specialties.

Peter Raymond has been specially engaged by Manager Dick Ferris to play the part of Noah Vale, in "A Poor Relation," at his Minneapolis stock house.

James L. Glass writes: "My company, the Donna Troy Stock, numbering twenty people, opens at Sheboygan, Wis., Jan. 26, in a new repertoire of plays, including 'A Desperate Crime,' 'Texas,' 'A Son of Mystery,' 'Down in Tennessee,' 'Lighthouse Robbery,' and 'Being Done Good.' Nina, the fire dancer, is the special vaudeville feature."

"A Hot Old Time" Notes: This company has been playing to the usual capacity business the past few weeks. New Year's week at the Auditorium, Kansas City, was a record breaker, while at Indianapolis our matinees were crowded and people were turned away from every evening performance. Dayton, O., has always given a warm welcome to "A Hot Old Time." An Hill is achieving a new record for herself by her character changes.

John W. Thompson, who formed the Theatrical Clearers' Protective Union, and was the delegate of the organization, died from consumption Jan. 10 at his home in New York.

The discovery is reported at Lund, Sweden, of a book containing the text of Shakespeare's "Titus Andronicus," printed in London in 1594. The oldest edition hitherto known is the 1600 quarto.

Before George Ade sailed for Porto Rico and Mexico last week, he signed a contract with Henry W. Savage to write for him another play, to be called "The Second Time on Earth."

George Elmore and Maud Norton, who recently closed with the "Reaping the Harvest" Co., are doing characters with the Allison Stock Co., now touring the South-west.

The Thurber-Nash Co. has been playing successfully through New England. Paullette and Piquo are still one of the features: Master Philip M. Thurber has also been praised for his excellent work; also Mile. Popita Delara has introduced a surprising novelty.

Richard C. Maddox reports meeting with success, playing the title role in "Uncle Si Haskins," under the direction of C. S. Primrose.

For "The Minister's Sweethearts," in which Manager G. H. Eldon will star Bessie Clifton, he has engaged the following people to support her: Anna Marion, Grace Elwood, Mabel Bailey, Clara Gale, B. Ralph Browne, Mathew Koehler, T. J. Stratton, Tom Ward, Horace Frey, S. S. Taylor, Richard Barry and John Myers. The advance will be in the hands of Matt Kusell, assisted by Wm. Dohm. Season opens at Trenton, N. J., Jan. 16.

T. Aldrich Barrett, a newspaper man of Wilkesbarre, Pa., has secured an engagement with the Mortimer Snow Stock Co., of the Court Square Theatre, Scranton, Pa.

Frank W. Sanford, of "Across the Pacific" Co., mourns the loss of his mother, who died Dec. 8, at the home of his daughter, in Brooklyn. She was mother-in-law of Mrs. F. W. Sanford, professionally known as Emma Miranda, and grandmother of Mrs. Geo. Hawkins.

Notes from the King Dramatic Co.: The popular Charles King Dramatic Co., featuring Charles King, is in its twenty-first week, and has been playing to business that has been satisfactory in every way. We have played the best towns in Georgia and Alabama, and are now en route to Key West and Nassau, playing an indefinite engagement at the latter place. From there the company proceeds directly North. Our repertoire consists of the very best plays and the "ghost" walks as regularly as we receive THE OLD RELIABLE—once a week. The roster is as follows: Charles King, Robt. H. Garrett, Billy Bishop, R. Roy Watson, Hettie B. King, Charlotte M. Bolton, Jennie L. Watson, Ed. Garrett, also the two clever children, Master Sydney and Baby Leonide.

Leon Friedman, who has been in advance of Robert Fitzsimmons, in the "A Fight for Love" Co., has been promoted to be general manager, in place of Joseph Edmonston, resigned. Business with the company has been excellent.

Thomas W. Ryley has obtained the dramatic rights of "The Lightning Conductor," and will star Cyril Scott in the comedy early next season.

Ida Mae Laurence has signed as understudy to Mrs. Terry McGovern in "For Fame and Fortune," and Harry Laurence has signed for the comedy role in "A Fight for Millions."

Ed. Barstead Jr. writes: "I have just closed a ten months' engagement with R. Reno's 'Joshua Simpkins' Co., as advance agent, which has been a pleasant and successful engagement. I will remain a few weeks in New York and take a much needed rest, so as to be ready for my Spring season. I will put on the road my 'Ten Nights in a Bar Room' Co., with a band and orchestra, and tour over my old territory in Canada."

A. E. Brandt, business manager for Chas. A. Loder's "A Funny Side of Life" Co., was suddenly stricken in Wheeling, W. Va., with an attack of locomotor ataxia, and he is at present confined in Lebanon Hospital, New York City. The malady has almost wholly deprived him of the use of his lower limbs, and it was with the greatest difficulty that he reached New York.

Lieber & Co., who own the rights of "The Squawman," are planning to make an elaborate Spring production of the play.

Notes from the Herald Square Stock Co., under the management of Ritter & Fanshawe: We opened our season at North Vassellboro, Me., Dec. 10, to a large and enthusiastic audience, presenting "The Working World." Business has been excellent along the line. The company numbers ten acting people, with Edward C. Osburn in advance. We are booked through Northern Maine until early Spring, with New York and Pennsylvania to follow. Our scenic artist, Wilkes Floy, is busy getting up new stuff, and in a few weeks we will have a fine scenic outfit for all our productions. James E. McElroy, the veteran comedian, well known over the entire Eastern circuit, is renewing old friendships and pleasing his audiences with comedy roles and in specialties. Our leading lady, Violet Alden, surprises the feminine portion of the audience with her elegant wardrobe. Arthur L. Fanshawe, in leading character roles, is creating a very favorable impression. Little Mabel Gray is a general favorite, caused by her natural acting and songs and dances. Our roster: Ritter & Fanshawe, proprietors and managers; Arthur L. Fanshawe, stage director; Jas. E. McElroy, stage manager; Wilber Floy, scenic artist; Chas. Dawson, musical director; Edward C. Osburn, advance representative; Geo. E. Ritter, Frank Ferris, Walter Haines, Chester Davidson, Violet Alden, Grace Grete, Cora Pearl and Mabel Grete. Our repertoire consists of: "Man of Courage," "Lost in London," "Cast Upon the World," "Princess Sunshine," "Slaves of the Working World," "Moonshiner's Daughter," "East Lynne," "Ten Nights" and "Lady Audley's Secret." All of the above are new versions of the old time plays, embellished by Mr. Fanshawe. We start the new year with THE OLD RELIABLE in our hands and bright prospects ahead. Our advance, Chas. E. Osburn, is a San Franciscan, and is filling his first Eastern engagement. "Santa Claus" paid us a visit at North Vassellboro, and all received handsome and useful presents.

J. M. Miller, of the Miller Bros. Stock Co., writes: "From our last two 'ads' in THE OLD RELIABLE we were able to get together a company that we are proud of. We received over five hundred answers to our 'ads.' We are doing a nice business in the West and our bookings are pleasing the people. We spent the holidays in Kansas City, reorganizing and booking Spring time. We carry fourteen people, composing the best Missouri and Iowa cities. We have added more scenery and another electric machine, making our stage effects equal to any Western vaudeville company. Our vaudeville features are getting their share of praise. Our plays are all up to date, are advertised with a beautiful line of paper, and staged with silk scenery. We are producing the following plays: 'Sin and Its Sorrows,' 'A Bachelor's Romance,' 'A Kentucky Girl,' 'Too Rich to Marry,' 'New England Folks,' 'Running for Congress,' 'Nature's Nobleman,' 'A Man of Mystery' and 'Just Plain Folks.' Our roster includes: J. M. Miller and O. L. Miller, managers; C. M. Steelsmith, C. Steelsmith, Leonard A. Emmert, Clyde Hyatt, Prof. E. D. La Forrest, musical director; Courtney Cooper, master of properties; Chas. Miller, in advance; Mrs. Ella Miller, Mrs. Nora Miller, Sadie Steelsmith, Dot Highbaugh and Mina Griffin, who continues in leads."

Richard Obee writes that Jules Murry's company, with Bettina Gerard and Max Figgman as co-stars, opened Sept. 1, at Wilmington, Del., and closed at Wichita, Kan., Dec. 1, owing to their Western bookings being unsatisfactory. The company resumed its tour at Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 26. In the interim, Bettina Gerard was stricken with her fatal illness. Newspaper reports that she was responsible for the closing of the company, are wholly untrue. Her death was a great loss and made a decidedly good impression in the part of Kitty. Her malady, which resulted in her death, on Jan. 9, was contracted during the inactivity of the company which is now playing return dates with Adelaide Mante, Max Figgman and the same cast which played the South and West from Sept. 1 to Dec. 1.

Amy Stone is engaged with "The Girl of the Streets" Co., for next season.

Notes from the Melville Dramatic Co.: Business has been good so far this season. Sickness compelled the company to make some very desirable dates. At the close of a very successful week's stand at Nashville, Ark., the Odd Fellows and Rebecca Lodges tendered the company a reception, at which were present many citizens of that thriving city. The people there appreciate a good show, and they come out. This is our fifth annual tour through this territory, and as we change our plays each season, we always receive a warm welcome. Manager Melville has engaged Edgar Mayo to stage a new line of plays for next season, which will include some of the best dramas and comedies of the day. This is the second opera house we have opened at Locksboro, Ark., the one of last year proving too small. S. R. O. is the record here so far.

Notes from the Royer Bros. "Next Door" Co., Archie Royer, proprietor; Jos. H. Arthur, manager: Our season opened Dec. 9, in Rochester, Pa., and our business has been a record breaker since we opened. We played to S. R. O. in Frankfort, Ind.; Muncie, Ind.; St. Marys, Pa.; and Danville, Ill. Our all star cast includes: Archie Royer, Lou Moore, Frank Maynard, Sidney Shephard, James Royer, Al. Read, Ben Beyer, Frank Douglas, Frank Wilson, musical director; Mysty Royer, Lizzie Steffen, Emma Write, Lillian Norton and Annie Royer. Our specialties are: Read and Write, singing and dancing; Royer and Maynard, comedy acrobats, and Ben Beyer, tramp cyclist. Frank Maynard introduces his high diving goose.

Notes from the J. C. Rockwell Dramatic Co.: We close our season in Rockville, Conn., Jan. 21. We have played thirty-five consecutive weeks, not losing a performance. We are closing a few weeks earlier than usual, as a number of theatres are undergoing repairs to comply with the new fire laws. Manager Rockwell will open his one night stand company about the middle of February, for a Spring tour, and will commence his twenty-sixth dramatic season, under canvas, in May. It is booked for forty weeks for the season of 1905.

Laura McFroud is the author of the American Students' Census, 1903, a copy of which has been received at this office. It contains the achievements of prominent Americans abroad and biographies of great professors of singing in Paris. It is well bound and printed on excellent paper. The illustrations, of which there are a number, being very good. Interesting notices on many prominent people in music are contributed, and the book is most entertaining. W. E. La Rose writes: "I am now in my seventeenth week, playing the lead with Ed. Anderson's 'The Midway Pler' Co., and doing well. The company is doing a good business right along. The members of the company got together on Christmas eve, at Paducah, Ky., and had a pleasant evening. We had refreshments, and presents were distributed."

"The Player Maid," the new play, by Louise Malloy, in which Florence Davis is shortly to begin her starring tour, under the direction of Mrs. H. C. De Mille, is a romantic comedy in four acts and the action takes place in England about the year 1730. The story deals with the fortunes of Eleanor Hallam, a gifted young actress, who enjoyed exceeding popularity at that period. The earlier scenes of the play occur back of the curtain of the famous old Drury Lane Theatre, London. Rehearsals began last week.

Lorin J. Howard, of Howard's Theatre, Chicago, has decided to continue his new policy of playing combinations.

Vaudeville and Minstrel.

NOTES FROM SANFORD B. RICABY'S WM. H. WEST'S BIG JUBILEE MINSTRELS.—We started off the new year with the largest Sunday night house that the Clunie Theatre, Sacramento, Cal., has held this season. All the boys are in good health and enjoying this, the extreme Western portion of our tour. Our holidays were spent in sunshine, and amidst flowers, instead of the usual snow and wintry cold. Owing to the illness of one of our comedians, Geo. Wade, Geo. Van has been taking his place, and Mr. Ricaby has officiated as interlocutor. We had a slight accident on the evening of Dec. 29, while making the run to Nevada City, Cal. An acetylene gas tank, located in the combination baggage car of the narrow gauge railroad, was exploded, slightly injuring Geo. Van. The rest of the trip of twelve miles was made in darkness. Other than a bad scare and some spoiled clothes, no other damage was done to the company. We now number forty-six people, with a concert band, under the direction of Frank Fuhrer. The sensational drum-major, Fred A. Smith, is the feature of the parade. The singing party is the best ever carried by this company, headed by the song writer and soloist, Frederick V. Bowers, also Geo. T. Martin, John P. Moore, Clarence Marks, Gilbert Loebe, Wayne Christy and D. A. Plouffe, with a chorus of eight trained voices. Our olio is as follows: The Lavalet Bros., sensational ring act; McDevitt and Kelly, buck and wooden shoe dancers; Pearce Bros., boy expert bag punchers and boxers; the Great Kartell, equilibrist; Tom Mack, star comedian and monologist, the show closing with the transformation and singing act of Frederick V. Bowers.

REGARDING HUBERT DEVEAU'S TALENT as a crayon artist, recent criticism paid him the following pretty compliment: "The gem of the whole act had been reserved for his encore. He drew a Winter scene that would be a credit to any art gallery; a large frame fell over and encased the picture. The stage was darkened and a lot of electric lights, concealed from view, made the scene blaze in beauty. As a climax to it all an ingenious mechanical little horse and sleigh, with its rider, drove across the picture. Mr. Deveau left the stage after some well-deserved bows."

THE SEASON'S BEST WISHES have come to THE CLIPPER from: Hayman and Franklin, Outlaw Trio, Bob and Eva McGinley, Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cragg, M. Henry Walsh, W. Simpson Cross, Three Graces, Dawson and Booth, Wiley Hamilton and members of Chatterbox Theatre, Tampa, Fla. Pearl and Cassidy and Belle C. Stewart and the Colby Family.

NETTIE FIELDS, the singer and dancer, has been accorded excellent praise from the Indianapolis newspapers for her work at the Grand Opera House in that city.

THE VADE CONCERT NOVELTY CO. NOTES.—We are playing through Illinois and Indiana with great success. Mr. Vade delights his audiences with his remarkable magic, difficult juggling feats and Japanese balancing tricks. His fire act is also decidedly clever. Mrs. Vade, pianist and vocalist, receives hearty encores. Mrs. Vade is the composer of several musical numbers, both classic and popular, and is also author of "A Game of Hearts," a four act comedy drama, and "A Gypsy Fortune Teller," a four act drama, both of which her husband contemplates taking out next season. The company will, in the near future, play at the Danville, Ind., Conservatory, where Mrs. Vade graduated with honors, after which they will work southward. Mr. Vade is manager of his own company (this being his eighteenth year in the show business), with William O. Davis in advance.

EVA WESTCOTT is appearing in the music halls of London, Eng., with success, with her sketch, "An Episode in Modern Life."

FRANK RAYMOND, while spending Christmas and New Year in Chicago, was given a dinner New Year's Day by Frank Ritchie, an old time performer, who has retired from the profession. A very enjoyable time was spent. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Art. Marine, Mollie Walker, Harry Nelson, Frank Raymond, Frank Ritchie, Chas. Palmer and Joe Duffey.

JACQUES KREIBER presented John M. Turner with a handsome gold mounted and engraved elk's tooth, as a brotherly token on New Year's Day.

LAFAYETTE, IND., LODGE, No. 143, B. P. O. E., gave its annual minstrel show Jan. 2 and 3, to large and delighted audiences. The performances were staged and coached by J. W. Davidson, who is the amusement director with the National Amusement Bureau. Mr. Davidson will continue in this capacity until April when, in conjunction with the Ross Sisters, he will produce his sketch, "The 20th Century Swells," which he has rewritten and which is already booked in the larger vaudeville theatres.

BELLE C. STEWART opened at Hamilton, O., at the Bijou Theatre, Jan. 9, with Springfield and Dayton, O., to follow.

RUSSELL AND O'NEIL write:—"We have just concluded a very successful engagement of nine weeks at the Orpheum, Vancouver, B. C., and opened for a twelve weeks' engagement in California, under the management of Archie Levy. We opened at the Chutes, San Francisco, for two weeks, commencing Jan. 2, with the Lyceum, San Francisco, and Oakland, Sacramento, San Jose and Los Angeles to follow. Our act, "Sullivan, the Coachman," is conceded by the managers to be one of the funniest Irish comedy acts that has ever appeared on the coast."

CAIR AND YULE report great success with their new act, "A Private Sanitarium." They are now on the Casto circuit, with New Bedford and other good time to follow.

BASEBALL GALLERY

This newest form of amusement appeals to every lover of the national game, to every man and boy who has ever played ball. Just as the rifle gallery appeals to the man who prides himself upon his marksmanship, or who desires to excel in that sport. It is not mechanical in any sense save that the ball is automatically pitched. The striker at the bat not only needs skill to place the ball, but, according to his skill, he may make a base hit, two-base, three-base hit, or a home run. A well-directed strike hits a target twenty feet away, the accuracy of the blow and the strength behind it being registered on a miniature baseball diamond, a dial, miniature men or dummies, standing at the home plate, starting to first base, second base, third base, or a home run, according to the skill of the batter; while, on the other hand, it is "three strikes and out" if the striker is not successful in making a base. This probably is sufficient to give you an idea of the interest that can be worked up in the game.

It has been proved what the device will do. The first gallery was built at Revere Beach. This was experimental, while the inventor was trying to develop his idea and build a perfect machine. It was tried on the public only at such times as it was practical to put a man in charge to try it out. Under these most disadvantageous conditions this first machine averaged $3.50 per hour.

A perfected machine, built and placed on exhibition at the Mechanics Fair, was a great improvement on the first. The exhibitors were not allowed to charge for its use at the Fair, but it attracted more attention than any other exhibit. The game was played by thousands, and had the exhibitors been allowed to charge for its use, they would have averaged from $50 to $60 a day.

THE BASEBALL GALLERY in its improved and perfected shape is now right, in every detail, and we shall be ready to deliver them for use the coming season.

Its special points of merit are:— It is not mechanical in any way save the one mentioned, and is a challenge to the skill of the player. Its proven earning capacity is 15 cents a minute. It occupies no more space than 25 feet x 12 feet—about the size of the ordinary rifle gallery, while it will earn twice as much. It is the new thing of 1905, adapted to the American taste and idea, filling just the want of those who "want" something new under the sun. Its use will be regulated so there will be no competition, and, covered as it is by the strictest patents, nothing like it will interfere with its success in each given locality. Owing to the large number of requests for machines, we shall have to arrange for local agencies in most of the larger cities, and handle our territory through them.

WANTED— Local Agents in all large cities to handle our new Base Ball Gallery. We want good men, and they must have at least $5,000 working capital. Any local agency handling our galleries should easily earn $15,000 to $20,000 a year. We expect the best, and will give the best of references.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY AMUSEMENT CO.,

50 Congress Street, Boston Mass.

THE CAPITOL CITY TRIO, vocalists and comedians, report success on the New England circuit. They are booked for a return date at Boston. Master Laurence has fully recovered. They will go South, and return East in the Spring.

E. J. PELHAM and H. KULDT have joined hands and will shortly do a black face act. Mr. Pelham was formerly of Pelham, Evans and Berger.

"DARE DEVIL TILDEN," who, it was erroneously reported had lost his life in an accident while appearing in his act at the Canton, Ill., Fair, on Oct. 14, 1904, was a Cleveland, Ohio, comedian, accompanied by his manager, F. M. Barnes.

AL. HARGRAVE informs us that he closed with "How He Won Her" Co., Jan. 7, at Toledo, O., after twenty weeks playing the Messenger Boy, a comedy part, and doing his comedy bicycle act.

THE WIFE OF GEO. B. ALEXANDER presented him with a baby girl on Jan. 2, at Cleveland. O. Mr. Alexander is assisted in his singing specialties by Olive Kerr.

MEMBERS OF FIELDS & HANSON'S MINSTRELS were entertained at Newport, R. I., Dec. 30, after the performance, by Senator Murphy, an old time minstrel. Also on Jan. 2, after the performance at Woonsocket, the members of the company were royally taken care of by Woonsocket Lodge, B. P. O. Elks, No. 850, at their lodge rooms. A bountiful collation was indulged in, with songs, recitations, etc.

KEMP'S PEKIN COMEDY FOUR, formerly known as Kemp's Whamoodle Comedy Four, have completed bookings comprising the Orpheum circuit, Sam T. Jack's, the Pekin and the Calumet Theatres. Their act is reported as a pronounced success. Chas. Marra, first tenor; Bobby Kemp, second tenor; Tom Logan, first bass; Ed. Hood, second bass.

JOHN H. MURPHY recently finished fifteen weeks on the Crystal and Grauman circuits, and is now playing San Francisco. He will play back through the Northwest and is booked in Chicago, commencing March 6.

LEO DEMOREST, the only son of Bob and Ona Demorest (the Musical Demorests), died at Hattiesburg, Miss., Jan. 3, from croup. He was born at Asheville, N. C., Aug. 18, 1901, and had traveled with his parents constantly since. He was buried Jan. 4, at Hattiesburg, and the Hurd Co., with the broken hearted parents, went on its way.

MITCHELL AND BROWNING write:—"We have resumed work after spending the holidays at our home in St. Louis. We opened at Lund's Family Theatre, East St. Louis, Ill., where our act was a big success, and have H. C. Dauforth's circuit to follow."

LIZZIE WELLES reports meeting with success, presenting her singing, dancing and trick piano playing act on the Western circuit.

RADIE FURMAN, "The Happy German Girl," opened at the Tivoli and Canterbury Music Halls, of London, Eng., on Dec. 26, and met with great success. Many prolonged engagements are booked to follow.

NOTES FROM BAILLOW & WILSON'S MINSTRELLOID HORSES AND DOGS topped the bill at the Orpheum, St. Joseph, Mo., last week. Mr. Wolfing writes the act has been most favorably received at all houses on the Orpheum circuit, especially the very clever exhibition of the two horses, which are called the boxing stallions. They are a pair of blooded Arabs, full of life, and are put through a lengthy drill of tricks and piroettes, ending the exhibition with a clever imitation of a regulation boxing match, in which a bulldog acts as assistant to the seconds. A fox terrier, which appears in the act, does a number of bright tricks. Mlle. Montmorency, who exhibits the horses, is an accomplished equestrienne.

TERLEY, mimic and illusionist, has arrived from Europe, and opened Jan. 23 on the Proctor circuit.

Mrs. LUCILLA THOMAS, the wife of George Thomas, the theatrical manager, entertained a number of newboys and other urchins at her home in Brooklyn Jan. 5, and her generous invitation was accepted by over a hundred youngsters. A large Christmas tree was loaded down with all kinds of toys and good things to eat. Mrs. Thomas bought such a large tree this year that she had to cut the top off of it. Every limb was burdened with fancy articles. During the evening Mr. Thomas showed the boys some moving pictures, and his wife rendered vocal selections for their amusement. The boys themselves gave songs and dances. After the entertainment refreshments were served to the guests. At the conclusion of the evening's entertainment the Christmas tree was stripped and every one present received a present.

Mr. BYRON, of Byron and Langdon, who met with an accident in London, Eng., just before sailing for America, was a CLIPPER caller Jan. 19. Mr. Byron, though still suffering from the effects of his accident, is improving, and hopes soon to take up his vaudeville engagements.

BARRY AND WOLFORD write: "We were compelled to close with 'The Little Church Around the Corner' Co., as the work was too hard on our voices. We have resumed playing vaudeville, opening at the Haymarket, Chicago. This week we are at the Chicago Opera House."

LITTLE BESSIE DIKS, the daughter of Dik's and Dik's, played her first professional engagement at Sheedy's Theatre, New Bedford, Mass., week of Jan. 2, and scored a success with her specialty.

FANNIE DONOVAN has just completed a new sketch, entitled "Ireland and Italy," which she will produce next season.

IVER JOHNSON REVOLVERS

ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE IMPOSSIBLE

THIS IS THE SAFETY POINT

—the Safety Lever that makes accidental discharge impossible, and disposes of this last argument against owning a revolver.

The safety principle: The firing pin is entirely separate from the hammer and cannot be struck without the aid of the Safety Lever; the Safety Lever is put into operation only by deliberately pulling the trigger. That's why you can "Hammer the Hammer" of an IVER JOHNSON or throw the arm around anywhere—any way—it can't possibly go off.

Learn about it by sending for our bright little booklet, "Shots," sent free together with handsome catalogue Iver Johnson's Arms and Cycle Works, Fitchburg, Mass. New York Office, 99 Chambers Street

Prices: Hammer, $5.00 Hammerless, $6.00

THE SISTERS MCCONNELL, with the Vandyke Stock Co., at the Lyric Theatre, St. Joseph, Mo., were kindly remembered on Christmas with a present from every one with the company, from Mr. Vandyke down even to the attaches of the theatre.

BLAIR, MCNULTY and MELBURN, recently finished a fourteen weeks' engagement at the Star Theatre, in Atlanta, Ga., and weeks of Jan. 9 and 10 they played the Star Theatre, Augusta, Ga. They are doing their new act, "Miss McCracken's Fiancee."

MARSH DE VAREO writes: "My wife and I have just arrived from the Sunny South, after an eight months' successful tour. We were entertained Jan. 7 by my old friend, the Great Lafayette. I am in better health than I have been in years."

BROOKS AND YOUNG, musical team, are laying off at St. Louis, their home, where Edo Young recently buried his father. The team will remain at St. Louis until March 6, when they open at the Olympic, Chicago.

JUAN A. CAICEDO is meeting with success in his wire act, in which he shows some surprising novelties.

MINNESOTA.

Minneapolis.—At the Metropolitan Opera House (L. N. Scott, manager) the Roosevelt Club (local) gave "Cinderella and the Prince" Jan. 22-23. A full house was drawn. The "Chinese Honey Moon" 23-24. "The Girl from Kay's" 24. Maxine Elliott had nine houses 15-18. "Pretty Peggy" did fairly well 19-21.

Rio de Janeiro House (Theo. L. Hays, manager).—The Elmore Sisters 22-23. "The Heart of Maryland" follows. The Russell Brothers had good patronage 15-21. On 15 James Russell was stricken by hemorrhage of the nose, was obliged to remain out of the cast and at the Northwestern Hospital until 22, when he left with his company, although not fully recovered.

LYCEUM (Dick Ferris, manager).—"A Poor Relation" 22-23. "Soldiers of Fortune" 29 and week. "Land of the Midnight Sun" drew well 15-21.

Quincy (Martin Beck, general manager).—The bill 22-23: Eva Williams and Joe Tucker, Augusta Glose, Texana Sisters, Wahlund and Tekla, Capt. George's Eight Redoubt Arabs, Phyllis Allen, Fred Hallen and Mollie Fulmer, splendid houses last week.

DEWEY (M. H. Singer, manager).—The Tiger Lilies 22-23. Rice & Barton's Gaiety Co. 29 and week. Good patronage pleased the Morning Glories Co. 15-21. A. H. Eller, the treasurer, is the proud owner of another "happy" baby.

ENRIQUE (Math. Gallagher, manager).—For 22 and week: Fries Children, Joseph McCauley, Signorita El Falto, Delmore and Barrell, Charles Heclew, the Two Brothers Bunts and the horse "Princess Dixie." Very satisfactory attendance last week.

St. Paul.—At the Metropolitan Opera House (L. N. Scott, manager) Jane Corcoran, in "Pretty Peggy," had fair business Jan. 15-18. She pleased all who saw her. Maxine Elliott had the full capacity 19-21. "A Girl from Dixie" 22-23. The Minneapolis House, with the addition of the Dayton Sisters, Roosevelt Club, will present "Cinderella and the Prince" 22-23. "The Girl from Kay's" 23-24. "A Chinese Honey Moon" 24.

GRAND (Theodore L. Hays, manager).—The Elmore Sisters, in "Mrs. Delany of Newport," had fair business week of 15. "The Heart of Maryland" week of 22. Mason and Mason next.

STAR (J. C. Van Roo, manager).—The Imperial Burlesquers had good business week of 15. For week of 22, the Morning Glories, Tiger Lilies follow.

EMPIRE (A. Weinholzer, manager).—Business was big week of 16, with the Millar Brothers' diorama as a strong card. These people and the entire cast will hold over week of 23, with the addition of the Pines.

CHRYSTAL (John C. Kane, manager).—New people for week of 23: Mona Anderson, Connors and Connors, Margaret White, the Aerial Stunts, Chas. Ellsworth and motion pictures. Holding over: Mae Burns, Babe Harrington, Polly O. Rogers, the Dayton Sisters, Frankie Evans, Chas. Frosto, Eddie Marion. Business was very good week of 16.

NOTE.—The Orpheum Circuit will construct its new theatre on a site between Fifth and Sixth Streets, on Cedar Street, immediately in the rear of the Frederick Hotel, a popular hostelry. A deal for the ground has been closed by F. B. Henderson, superintendent of construction. The property is held by M. J. O'Neill, of this city, and has a frontage of 100 feet on Cedar Street by a depth of 140 feet. Our building code is most exacting, calling for alleyways on both sides, rear as well as front exits, steel fire escapes, stairways and exits to alleys. But the space will be ample. Contracts will be awarded at once.

Duluth.—At the Lyceum (C. A. Marshall, manager) Chas. Hawley, Jan. 17-19, had fair business. Maxine Elliott had nice business 12-14. "A Chinese Honey Moon" 21. Jassie MacLaughlin, in concert, 23. "Pretty Peggy" 24, 25. Williams and Walker Feb. 4. Dan Sullivan 18.

METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE (J. T. Condon, manager).—"After Midnight" 16-18. Business was good. "A Married Man's Troubles" 19-21. "Across the Desert" 23-25. The vaudeville company did good business 9-14.

RIOT (Joe Maitland, manager).—This vaudeville house is playing to record breaking business. Bill week of 23: Wilson and Moran, Drako's cheap and dogs, Marguerite Newton, Prof. Emery, L. O. Whittier, the moving pictures. All six houses on the circuit are doing well.

KANSAS.

Wichita.—At the Crawford (E. L. Martling, manager) Paul Gilmore presented "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," to a large audience, Jan. 11. Murray and Mack had nice business 14. "For Her Sake" pleased 16. "That Little Swede" 17.

TOPEKA (William Flood Stock Co. came to good business 12-14. "Catie" (Harry Lewis, proprietor).—Good business, regardless of the bad weather.

NOTE.—Catie will open a popular priced theatre about Feb. 1.

The only string to the sale is the cord around the packages. Every short piece of cloth in the house can be bought for $17. 'til Spring gets around with the new woollens. Single or double breasted suits to measure—$17. Trousers, $4.50.

ARRHEIM,

Broadway & 9th St., New York.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis.—At English's Opera House (Ad. F. Miller, manager) Walker White-side, Jan. 13, 14, came to very good business. Otis Skinner 20, 21, Virginia Hagedorn 23, 24. Roselle Knott 28.

PARK (Dickson & Talbot, managers).—Billy B. Van, in "The Emerald Boy" 12-14, packed the house. "The Charity Nurse" 16-18, drew very big business. "Why Girls Leave Home" 19-21. "Deserted at the Altar" 23-25. "The Beauty Doctor" 26-28.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (Shaffer Ziegler, manager).—Paul Conchas, juggler, will be the headliner of the excellent vaudeville bill week of 23. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Truesdell and Co., in "His Long Lost Child," is the extra attraction. The Mowatts, Reed and Shaw, Knight Bros and Sawtelle, Paulson and Dooley, Tobin Sisters, Cooper and Robinson and the bioscope complete the bill. Winona Shannon and Co., in "His Long Lost Child," was a pleasing feature week of 16. Business still holds up to the capacity.

EMPIRE (Chas. Zimmerman, manager).—Vanity Fair Co. stood them up. The United Mine Workers of America bought the entire house Friday night and attended in a body. Gay Masqueraders week of 23.

Evansville.—At the Grand Opera House (Pedley & Birch, managers) Cutter & Williams Stock Co., Jan. 9-14, appeared in a good repertoire of plays. Grace Van Studdford called out a packed house 10. "The Crisis" 16, called out a big house. Nette Comstock made a decided hit. "Peggy from Paris" 23. "The Virginian" 25. High School Commencement 27. "The County Chairman" 28. "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast" 30-Feb. 4.

PROVIDENCE (Pedley & Birch, managers).—Anna Eva Fay finished a successful week's entertainment 14, both financially and otherwise. Eva Tanguay 22.

NOTE.—The Cutter & Williams Stock Co., after playing a week's stand at the Grand Opera House to very small audiences, disbanded. Nothing definite is known of their plans.

Terre Haute.—At the Grand Opera House (T. W. Barbydt, manager) Mildred Holland came Jan. 19, to good business. The Span of Life" 20, 21, played to good houses.

EMPIRE (Thos. Finnegan, manager).—Lawson and Curtis proved such a hit last week that they have been engaged for another week. The current bill also includes: Badder and Le Velle, Seymour's acrobatic sketch; Coulter and Brady, Brandt Sisters, Nellie Mack, Mr. and Mrs. Finnigan. Business is constantly increasing.

Vincennes.—At McIntyre Theatre (Frank Green, manager) "A Girl from Dixie," Jan. 14, had fair business. "Hooligan's Troubles," did good business 16. "A Bunch of Keys," 18, fared well. Eva Tanguay 21. "Happy Hooligan" 23. "The Little Homestead" 24.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence.—At the Providence Opera House (Felix R. Wendelschefer, manager).—James K. Hackett and Lulu Glaser, both local favorites, enjoyed good patronage. "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" Jan. 23-25. "The Merry Shop Girls" 26-28. Henry Miller Feb. 2-4.

IMPERIAL (Felix R. Wendelschefer, manager).—"A Woman of No Importance," took well at its production by Providence Dramatic Stock Co. last week. "A Black Sheep" 22-23. "London Assurance" next week.

EMPIRE (Spitz & Nathanson, managers).—The Hays, in "Down the Pike," proved very amusing, to large audiences, week of 16. "A Wife's Secret" 23-25. Terry McGovern, in "For Fame and Fortune," follows.

KEITH'S (Charles Lovenberg, manager).—Bill for week of 23: Grace Cameron, the Empire City Four, Scott Brothers, Acrobatic Arabs, Dolan and Lehigh, in "Taking Chances," George H. Wood, Brown and Navarro, Vinton and Clayton, in "Bill Casey, Burglar," Shurgopari, magician; Watson and Hill, Goetz and Nelson, Chick, tramp "Crest," and a demolition of liquid air.

WISCONSIN (George H. Batcheller, manager).—The Brigadier Burlesquers entertained good houses week of 16. The Trocadero 23 and week. Jolly Grass Widows follow.

NOTES.—Ellwood, the magician, was seen in the Y. M. C. A. Course 20. The Rhode Island Kennel Club will hold a dog show at Infantry Hall 24-26. Campaigner will give a song recital at Infantry Hall 31. Chrystall Herne will be the leading woman of the Albee Stock Co. next summer. J. J. Ysaye, the violinist, gave a successful recital under the local management of Joseph M. Marr, 18, at Infantry Hall. Harry Barfoot has left the Providence Dramatic Co. to play with E. S. Willard. David Walters has been re-engaged for the Empire Stock for next summer.

Woonsocket.—At the Woonsocket Opera House (Josh E. Ogden, manager) dark Jan. 16-20. "Human Hearts" 21. "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" 23. Marks Bros. Stock Co. 30 and Feb. 1-4. "The Merry Shop Girls" Jan. 31.

HEN (Jas. W. Conklin, manager).—Coogan & Bacon's Vaudeville Co. plays week of 23. The bill last week was the best seen at this house the present season. Every act was a feature. Business is excellent.

—Frank Rich writes: "Have resigned as manager for Harry Corson Clarke, and have leased the Empire Theatre at Houston, Tex. Mr. Clarke and his excellent company will continue his successful engagement here two weeks more."

OUR CHICAGO LETTER.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

Western Bureau.
Of the New York Clipper,
Room 502, Ashland Block, Chicago.

Wm. H. Crane, presenting "Business is Business," at Powers, and Al. Leach and the Three Rosebuds, introducing "Girls Will Be Girls," at McVicker's, will furnish the novelties for the week of Jan. 22-28. The departure of Dustin Farnum, with "The Virginian," from the Garrick, on Sunday night, makes room for Ada Rehan to begin her deferred engagement on Monday night. On Saturday night, Jan. 21, the Hoer War ended a highly successful engagement at the Coliseum.

ILLINOIS THEATRE (Will J. Davis, manager).—William Gillette begins the third and last week of "The Admirable Crichton" Monday evening, Jan. 23. He will be succeeded next Monday night by Virginia Harned, who comes to present "The Lady Shore" for two weeks, then giving the play for the first time here.

POWERS THEATRE (Harry J. Powers, manager).—William H. Crane will give us our first views of "Business is Business" on Monday night, 22. He will remain two weeks. On Sunday night, 23, Leon Wachner's German Dramatic Co. will come down from Milwaukee for its customary weekly performance. On Saturday night Annie Russell closed two weeks of "Brother Jacques," the result being a splendid business and excellent entertainment.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (Harry Askin, business manager).—Richard Mansfield has attracted his usual excellent Chicago business during the past two weeks, and the prospects are excellent for continuation of this gratifying box office condition during the three weeks which still remain of his engagement. During the past week "Ben Brummell" and "The Merchant of Venice" divided attention. For the current days "A Woman of the World" and "Richard III" will divide the week. James K. Hackett is underlined to succeed Mr. Mansfield, presenting "The Fortunes of the King" for two weeks, and then comes Blanche Bates, in "The Darling of the Gods."

GARRICK THEATRE (Sara P. Gerson, business manager).—Ada Rehan begins a fortnight of classic drama Monday night with "The Taming of the Shrew." Charles Richmond playing "Tetrachio" to her. Katherine Wilson an extra performance on Sunday night, 22. Dustin Farnum ends two weeks of "The Virginian." His engagement was a repetition of his former appearance here, in the way of extremely profitable attendance, an artistic performance and delighted beholders.

McVICKER'S THEATRE (Geo. C. Warren, business manager).—Al. Leach and the Three Rosebuds give us our first views of "Girls Will Be Girls" on Sunday night, 22, booked to remain of four days. "A Woman of the World" is announced to present "The Way to Kenmare" on Saturday night, 21. Edward Morgan closed two weeks of "The Eternal City," capacity business having marked the engagement.

STURGEON THEATRE (R. E. Harney, business manager).—The Frank L. Parley Opera Co. begins the third week of "The Girl and the Bandit" on Monday night, 23. Business has been excellent, and the present company and performance has won unqualified praise from critics and beholders. "The County Chairman," returning to its birthplace, will be the next attraction here.

GREAT NORTHERN THEATRE (Fred C. Eberts, business manager).—Opening Sunday afternoon, 22, Wm. H. Turner will present "David Harmer," a new comedy, "The Superba" will be the ensuing attraction. During the past week the house was sold out for nearly every performance of "The Errand Boy," an entertaining farcical comedy, in which Billy B. Van, Rose Beaumont and Geo. H. Brown, a comedian especially distinguished themselves.

LA SALLE THEATRE (E. R. Mackaye, business manager).—"His Highness the Bey" with Al. Shean adding new laurels to his comedy achievement with each performance, continues the attraction here. Two changes in the cast mark the beginning of the tenth successful week Sunday night. Clara Throppe succeeds Zelma Rawlston, and Al. H. Weston takes the place of Cecil Leon. The successor to this production is not yet announced.

CRITERION THEATRE (Ben M. Giroux, business manager).—Howard Hall, in "The Wolf's Paradise," who enjoyed fourteen prosperous bids for North side favor up to and including Saturday night, 21, will be followed by "The Factory Girl" to take possession Sunday afternoon for the current entertainment of these audiences.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC (Wm. Roche, business manager).—"The Fatal Wedding," featuring Gertrude Haynes and her Choir Celestial, opens Sunday afternoon for the current week's entertainment, "Eight Bells" being announced to follow. During the past week "From Rags to Riches" was the "thriller."

COLUMBUS THEATRE (Weber Bros., managers).—The Brothers Byrne present "Eight Bells" Sunday afternoon, billed for a week, to be followed, 29, by "From Rags to Riches." There was "A Hot Old Time" at this resort during the week ending Saturday night, 21.

ALHAMBRA THEATRE (James H. Browne, business manager).—"Why Girls Leave Home" will be elucidated here this week, the first exemplification being made known Sunday afternoon. "The Fatal Wedding" was the attraction week ending Saturday night, 21. "After Midnight" will be followed by Gertrude Haynes and her Choir Celestial were enthusiastically received as a feature of last week's entertainment.

BLISS THEATRE (Wm. Roche, business manager).—Louis Beaton, presenting "Rachel and Leah," will be followed by "The Girl and the Bandit" on Monday night, 23. The company will be followed by "The Girl and the Bandit" on Monday night, 23. The company will be followed by "The Girl and the Bandit" on Monday night, 23.

tioned attraction, and as the play is practically new to the road, here is the cast: Geoffrey Ward, A. J. Pickens; Terry, W. R. Goodall; Simon Strauss, Herbert Wilson; Lewis Strauss and Jasper Jones, Herbert O'Connor; Capt. Telford, A. J. Callard; Brother Tom, Harry Cooper; Crooked Jimmy, Wm. A. G. Butler; Referee, Jackson P. Woodward; Rachel Levi, Kate V. Toncray; Mame, Adeline Roth; Susie Mooney, Emma Luxan; Gipsy Nell, Rose Baker; Ragged Man, Myrtle B. Norton; Solomon Levi, James Kyrie MacCurdy. Mr. MacCurdy is both author and star, and gives a finished performance. The many stirring scenes of the piece roused these audiences to enthusiasm, and the clever blending of humor and pathos kept the interest unflagging. In a recent notice of this house the advertised prices of admission were mentioned, but the management desires us to state that there are some choice seats which are sold at higher prices than those then stated.

BUSH TEMPLE THEATRE (Elizabeth Schroder, manager).—Geo. Allison essays the title role in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," backed by Mabel Montgomery and members of the Players' Stock Co. During the past week "In the Palace of the King" was the bill.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE (Leslie Davis, manager).—Eugene Moore and Lillian O'Neil head the Leslie Davis Stock Co. in "The Lost Wife," this week. The excellent box office results of the past week attested the drawing qualities of "Master and Slave."

HOWARD'S THEATRE (Lorin J. Howard, manager).—May Hosmer, with her stock company, withdrew from this house with a splendid performance of "Tetrachio," 21. On Sunday a new business arrangement and a new stock company became operative. Manager Howard has sublet the theatre to Rudolph Marklin, but will continue as manager for the new lessee. Joseph D. Clifton and John Morris head the new stock company which opens Sunday afternoon, 22, in "Me and Mother." Larry Williams, Geo. Moneratt, Frank De Leon, Fred Duprez and Lillian Coleman will be in the new company. ADVENTURE THEATRE (Chas. B. Marvin, manager).—The Morris Stock Co. continue to thrive here. When I called in one night during the past week a good house was enjoyed "A Woman of the World," a melodrama, by Chas. Terris, who is also mentioned in the cast. There is no company with Wills and Blanche Hazleton, leads: Thornton Friel, Wilson Reynolds, Harry Buchanan, Jessie Mosley, Jennie McAlpin and Marie Paulson. "Exiles of Russia" is the bill opening 22. This house is about to be sold to J. H. Hall, and is conducted under a policy of neighborhood exclusiveness which makes news hard to get.

OLYMPIC THEATRE (Abe Jacobs, manager for Kohl & Castle).—Opening Monday afternoon, 23: James and Cella Welch, Jackson and Douglas, Chas. Gloss and son, Barry and Clifford, Roscoe and Sims, Nettie and George, West and Wadsworth, the Carter-Waters Company, Josephine Ainslie, the Three Ramoniers, Mabel McKinley, Raymond and Caverly, McMahon's Minstrel Maids, James J. Morton, the Melrose Troupe, and Geo. K. Spoor's Minstrel.

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE (C. B. Draper, manager for Kohl & Castle).—Opening Monday afternoon, 23: James and Cella Welch, Jackson and Douglas, Chas. Gloss and son, Barry and Clifford, Roscoe and Sims, Nettie and George, West and Wadsworth, the Carter-Waters Company, Josephine Ainslie, the Three Ramoniers, Mabel McKinley, Raymond and Caverly, McMahon's Minstrel Maids, James J. Morton, the Melrose Troupe, and Geo. K. Spoor's Minstrel.

HYDE & BELMONT'S (Archibald Ellis, manager).—Sunday night a big number, which will be the feature of the bill starting Sunday afternoon, 23. Other acts will be furnished by James Courthope and company, Mons. Albany, the Quartet Basque, the Four Alvinos, Adami and Taylor, May Belford, and the four Alvinos, Adami and Taylor. Rumor is again busy with the destinies of this house—the former Iroquois Theatre. It is now said that Klaw & Erlanger will assume complete charge of the house and play their combinations therein, beginning in the near future.

SAM T. JACK'S THEATRE (Sidney J. Eason, manager).—May Howard remains the feature of the burlesque stock company, this week's change of bill bringing into evidence "A Minstrel Carnival" and "The Rounders" as the first part and burlesque. Helen Russell, Carlyle Scott, Harry Lane, Ed. Conn and the other stock favorites will have prominent roles. The vaudeville interlude will employ Johnson and Welles, McCune and Grant, Terry and Hall and the Hatch Brothers.

BROADWAY THEATRE (Robert Fulton, manager).—The Imperials will have possession week starting Sunday afternoon, 22. "The Gay Widow Brown" and "The Man from the West" bring Lillian and Rene Washburn to the fore as leaders of the feminine delegation. During the past week the house's Big Extravaganza Co. made good its former reputation for excellent entertainment, and pleased large crowds at all of the fourteen performances.

FOLLY THEATRE (Robert Fulton, manager).—Vanity Fair will be exemplified in burlesque as this week's attraction, "A French Girl in Greater New York" and "The Female Drummers" being the subdivisions of the entertainment. There will be vaudeville also provided by the large Irish band, the Conn and Corinne, the Clemons Brothers, Harry and Hoon, Held and Sutherland, Emilie Beaupre, and Ward and Raymond. Weber's Dainty Duchess Co. gave a fine entertainment during the past week to audiences of good average.

LONDON DIME MUSEUM (Wm. J. Sweeney, manager).—In curio hall: Prof. Veno, magician; Barney Nelson, armless painter; La Jess, snake enchantress, and N. Y. Dutch tattooer. On the stage: The Williams Sisters, boxers; Maxine Miller, Trixie Elie, Madge Mortley and Hull's motion photographs.

CLARK STREET MUSEUM (Louis M. Hedges, manager).—There will be the usual round of curio hall attractions and a brief vaudeville, repeated, although the stalls are not at hand. Good business rules here.

AFTERMATH.—Manager Robert Fulton gave a "house warming" and formal opening of the Folly Theatre Cafe Friday night. The "grand opening" was a success, and the attendance was large. The bill of fare, "The Price of Sin" is the stock company bill at the Calumet Theatre, South Chicago, this week, with Kittle Delora and Tedd Brackett playing the leads. Scott and Sutton, who played their last Western vaudeville date, after three consecutive weeks in this section, at Sam T. Jack's Opera House, last week, go East at once to open their bookings at Tony Pastor's, Feb. 13.

Geo. Crawford, late of Crawford and Stanley, and Ralph Post, of Post and Clinton, have been putting together a new acrobatic dancing specialty in Chicago during the past fortnight. As Post and Crawford they open at the Orpheum, Brooklyn, 30, for their first week. Jack E. Magee was in town last week, "Humor Hater" (Western) being closed Jan. 16 at Fargo, N. D. He went from here to Newark, O., to join "Hooligan's Troubles," Eastern, to play the title part.

Foster and Foster closed with the Parisian Widows at the Folly Saturday night, and will return to vaudeville. Ad. Carlie, with his dogs, is in town, having lately returned from a tour of the Orpheum circuit.

The will of the late Theodore Thomas was filed for probate in this city last week. The will, which is dated Dec. 2, 1896, leaves an estate of personal property entirely, valued at $50,000, to his wife, Mrs. Ray Thomas, the widow of the sole beneficiary. At her death the children—Hector W. Thomas, Mrs. Minna Thomas Sturgess, Herman Thomas and Mrs. Marion T. Carter—are to share in the estate. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Jack, the team of Mr. and Mrs. Jack were compelled to cancel week of Jan. 16 and lay off in Chicago. Mrs. Jack is much improved and they are this week at the Bijou Theatre, Racine, Wis., with time booked nearly solid to May 15.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

Clipper Bureau.
48 Cranbourne Street,
Leicester Square,
London, W. C.
Jan. 14.

"The Talk of the Town," the successor of "The Earl and the Girl" at the Lyric Theatre, opened last week, and is sure to prove a worthy successor. While there is nothing very new in the book, there is enough good in it to make the people laugh, which is, perhaps, the main thing after all, even though the construction is not absolutely original. The new musical comedy has been dressed superbly, nothing more elegant has been seen in London for a long time. As usual in musical plays the piece depends largely for its brightness upon the interpolated songs and dances. The story in brief deals with the financial embarrassments of the young Squire of Arundel, who is at the moment of the broker's man. At the last moment a message comes from his friend, Lieutenant Hambleton, who is in India, saying that he has inherited a fortune of $150,000 a year, and that he will relieve the master of Arundel of his liabilities. In consequence of the broker's man, who include two Jewish money lenders, quiet, it is necessary for some one to impersonate Hambleton until his arrival. The broker's man is pressed into service and the fun of the piece commences when the man appears as Hambleton, accompanied by two bogus Indian servants. The fun reaches its climax when, in order to make good his escape, the broker's man, disguised as a sort of Charley's Aunt, encounters his wife and four children. It is interesting to note in the theatrical world how rapidly perhaps than in any other, success leads to success. So far as serious work is concerned on this side, Alfred Sutro carried off the honors with "The Walls of Jericho." And now, long before the popularity of that play can be exhausted, he is to be followed by a new play, "The Walls of Jericho," by George Alexander, who has recently accepted a new comedy written by him, and it is in this that the popular manager of the St. James Theatre will make his reappearance on the conclusion of the run of "Lady Windermere's Fan." Mr. Sutro's comedy bears the somewhat curious title of "Mollentrate on Women," a title the precise significance of which each person must be allowed to construe for himself. That it has however, rather an engaging appearance, will be generally admitted. Immediately following upon Mr. Sutro's play Mr. Alexander will present "John Chitole, M. P.," adapted by Mr. and Mrs. Temple Thurston from the well known novel of that name. In relation to Mr. Alexander's future plans I am also able to make another interesting announcement. This involves the London appearance in the course of the coming season of Madame Le Bary, the famous French actress, who, in so sudden and striking a manner, has achieved a triumph, besides her success in Paris, during a recent visit to that city Mr. Alexander arranged with her to play, in conjunction with himself, in an English version, prepared by Harry Melville, of Alfred Capus' piece, "Le Bary," which will constitute the first occasion upon which Madame Le Bary has acted in English.

Another dramatist whose name is soon to figure again upon a London programme is Captain Robert Marshall. His new piece is to be presented early in February at Wyndham's, by arrangement with Frank Curzon, under the direction of Arthur Chudleigh and Charles Frohman. Like the "Duke of Killarney," the play is conspicuous for the brevity of its cast, only five principal characters being included. Rehearsals are to start shortly, and in the company will be found Weedon Grossmith, C. M. Lowe, Vane Tempest, Mrs. Theodore Wright and Naucy Price.

R. C. Carton has been silent for nearly a year, but an unusual interval for a dramatist, but it is pleasant to know that a new piece from his pen is shortly to be seen at a West end theatre. The novelty has been secured by Frank Curzon, and is in the form of a three act farce, a medium which should exclude all serious pretensions. The story is entirely modern, and an extremely strong company has already been engaged by Mr. Curzon for its interpretation. Mr. Carton's piece will be produced at the Avenue Theatre, upon as rehearsals, which will begin immediately.

James Welch, the principal male member of "The White Cat" cast, has for some weeks past been fighting manfully against illness, but has at last broken down, threatened with serious trouble. He has been ordered by his doctor to give up all work and proceed at once to Riviera. It is said that Welch will be some weeks before he is well enough to return again to the London stage.

It is stated on good authority that the publishing firm of Ricordi & Company are about to take an important step in the practical encouragement of English opera and its composers. The full details of the scheme are not yet settled, but it is believed that the firm will offer a prize of $2,500 for the best English opera, by an English composer, and that arrangements have been made for the production of the successful work at the Covent Garden.

"The Scarlet Pimpernel," a new play, by an author, veiling his identity under the pseudonym of Ogey Barstow, had its first London production at the New Theatre last week, by Julia Neilson and Fred Terry and company. The story: Living at the time of "The French Revolutionary Terror" is a British baronet, previously married to a French actress. This lady, whose brother's wife is at the mercy of a ruthless secret agent of the Convention, is terrified by his threats into acting as a spy for the purpose of discovering a mysterious Englishman, whose life is chivalrously devoted to rescuing aristocratic gentlemen doomed to death from the guillotine. Lady Blakeney succeeds in tracking down this elusive knight errant under his sobriquet of "The Scarlet Pimpernel," only to find, too late, when she has denounced him to her employer, that the man is none other than her own dearly loved lord. The wife's blind error, however, is ultimately nullified by the husband's mother wit, which defeats the secret agent by turning the result of his own machinations upon himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendal, who for the last five years have not been paying their once customary visit to the United States, are going there shortly under the management of Daniel Frohman.

It is now known that "The Era" is sold to Hamar Bass. The present policy of the paper will be continued under the new management.

"His Majesty's Servant" was played for the one hundredth time at the Imperial Theatre last Monday night.

The question of stage plays in music halls was raised once more by the appeal of the Metropolitan Theatre of Varieties at a North London Court last week, against a fine of $900, inflicted by the judge on Oct. 28, for the performance of "The Fighting Parson." Mr. McConnell and the other justices argued the conviction, with costs, but reduced the fine to $450. An appeal by the Oxford Music Hall against a fine of $600, by Mr. Kennedy, for producing "The Belle of the Orient," was dismissed with costs.

Thomas Barrasford now controls twenty-one places of amusement, including the Coliseum in Paris, and will shortly open a music hall in Belgium. His Liverpool house accommodates 5,000 people, and 50,000 persons pay over $5,000 every week for admission. The packed gallery is as ordered as the stalls of a theatre in the West End of London. The opera company at the Lyceum is said to cost $1,300 a week. Mr. Barrasford considers that the people want the best of everything, including music.

Shortly after eight o'clock, on Jan. 6, almost at the conclusion of the Derby race at the Coliseum, an accident which was attended with fatal results occurred. Everything went well until one of the jockeys, who was riding on the outer edge of the outer ring of the revolving platform, rolled and fell over the side of the jockey who was riding next to him. In doing so he jostled the other horse, and that horse backing slightly, put its hind hoof on the solid part of the stage. The horse thus got between the revolving stage and the stationary part, and rolled and fell over the orchestra, together with his rider. The members of the orchestra got out of the way and escaped injury. Assistance was at once forthcoming, and horse and rider were got up. The jockey, who was unconscious, was examined by a doctor, who told him to get up, and was afterwards conveyed to the Charing Cross Hospital, where he died within a quarter of an hour after his arrival. His name is given as Dent. When he was thrown, his head struck the proscenium, and thus inflicted the injury which proved fatal. In consequence of the fatality the management decided to rope in the ring, and this was used at the final production of the Derby race on that night, which went off without a hitch. The horse was uninjured.

Lew Liss, manager of the London appearance at the Palace Theatre last Monday night, and without any exaggeration was one of the successes of the show. His saxophone solos are exceptionally good, and the monologue work fits in very nicely with the rest of the act, and is a good act. Mr. Weiss has an excellent place on the bill.

The first of a series of Alhambra matinees, entitled "Urbanora," was given last Monday afternoon. The first part of the programme, which lasts about forty minutes, consists of an exhibition of four feet of film of animated pictures, "old beasts" and reptiles in captivity, representing the combined efforts of operators in many parts of the world. After an interval, during which a specially selected musical variety turn is performed, "A Trip to New York," is shown. This is an interesting record of the weather in America on the Kaiser Wilhelm II, depicting incidents of life on a liner, stirring scenes in a gale, extraordinary sun set and night effects, and first impressions of New York City.

Kensal Stoll has now twenty-nine Empires and Hippodromes under his management. He opened one in Manchester on the same day that he opened the Coliseum in London, and two more are in course of construction. The total capital of all that great enterprise is $10,500,000. The front of the house staff at the Coliseum numbers no fewer than 180 persons. Behind the curtain there are twice as many people. There are 110 scene shifters and twenty-six men in the flies. Twenty-six men work the lime lights, there are 112 military supers, 60 chorus people for the auditorium, besides the orchestra, motor men and various mechanics.

Keno, Welch and Montrose are on the Stoll tour and are making good with their comedy acrobatic novelty. They will remain on this side until next summer, when they return to the States to play forty-two weeks with David Krause, this engagement to commence on Aug. 1.

The Deer Family are topping the bill at the Empire Theatre, Middlesbrough, this week. They are meeting with good success and are pretty well booked for the present. The two brothers are notable sights on the streets of London. English folks see a great many Indians, but not the real American Indian such as America boasts of. One of the brothers told me a short time ago that as soon as the weather becomes milder he would show the strollers in Hyde Park a few tricks in horse back riding.

Tom Birchmore, the minstrel comedian, late of Moore & Burgess, and last season with Dumont's Minstrels, has just closed a three months' tour with his London entertainers and is now with one of the Hamilton Scenic Shows touring Scotland.

Madame Belle Cole, a popular contralto, died last week. The lady had been suffering from diabetes for a long time, but it was only quite recently that she assumed an acute form. An American by birth, Madame Cole appeared as a prodigy, singing in public at a very early age. She also played the violin. But it was not until 1883 that she commenced professional work in earnest, her first engagement, as is often the case with American singers, being in a church. She was engaged as principal soloist at St. Thomas' Church, in New York, at a salary of $1,250 per annum.

George H. Chirgwin, the "White-eyed Kaffir," was driving his motor car last Monday through Leicester, on his way to Nottingham, when the rear wheels of the vehicle skidded, and the carriage came violently into collision with an electric tramway standard. Mrs. Chirgwin was thrown out and sustained an injury to her ankle, but her husband and five year old daughter escaped with a severe shaking up. The car was doubled up and rendered useless. Mr. Chirgwin completing his journey by rail.

Heloise Titcomb, who is appearing at the Lyceum, came over to England with the original "Belle of New York City." She shortly returns to America, but intends coming back to the Lyceum next October with a wonderful horse, "King," when she will give a remarkable high school performance.

Alice Raymond, who came from Leeds that she and her husband, John Kurkamp, are in the "Cinderella" pantomime at the Theatre Royal, Leeds. Miss Raymond introduces her musical specialty in the ball room scene, and her solos on the cornet and other musical instruments always bring from four to six cheers at every performance. Mr. Kurkamp is musical director of the pantomime, and when he does his slinging act the audience is taken off its feet. In reviewing the show a Leeds publication prints the following: "One of the biggest features of the show is scored by Alice Raymond, who plays the cornet splendidly, and who is assisted by the conductor, Mr. Kurkamp, whose vocalisation pulled the house down last night. The idea of a daring innovation, but it will be one of the lasting features of the show."

Ed. F. Reynard and wife were in town last Sunday for a few hours. They came from Birmingham and were on their way to Brighton, where Mr. Reynard is playing this week. He was to open at the Lyceum this week for four weeks, but a change in dates was made, and now Mr. Reynard and his mechanical figures are not due at the Lyceum until Jan. 23. He will probably remain in this country until next summer, when he returns to the States to work on some new figures for his American engagement in September.

The Four Lukens, after a run of ten weeks at the Empire, closed at that house last Saturday night, and are now astonishing the residents of Manchester with their "double somersault and full twist" and other hard feats. They come back to London next Monday.

Monday Night's Openings in All the Big Show Towns.

GOLDEN GATE GLEANINGS.

Business is Most Satisfactory.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—At the Columbia this is the second and last week of Edna Wallace Hopper, in "A Country Mouse," and curtain raiser. Business has been very good. Wallace Collier follows.

MAJESTIC.—"The Belles" is this week's bill.

ALCAZAR.—"The Conquerors" is the current offering.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—This is the second and last week of "The Silver Slipper," J. H. Stoddard follows.

CALIFORNIA.—This is the second and last week of Joseph Murphy. "Shaun Rhee" is this week's bill.

CENTRAL.—"Jerusalem, or the Holy City," is current.

TYVON OPERA HOUSE.—This is the third week of Grand Italian opera, by the Mexican Opera Co.

ORPHEUM.—Bill opening 22: Binns, Binns and Binns, Alcide Capitaine, Therese and Partner, the Carter De Haven Sextette, Clifford and Bunker, the Four Musical Avocets, the Nelson Family (10) and the Orpheum motion picture.

CHUTES.—Bill opening 23: Jesse Lawrence, Mabel Lamson, the Yale Duo, the Star Trio, John T. Powers, the Four O'Leans and the biograph.

NOTES.—Melba will give two concerts at the Alhambra Theatre, under the direction of Gottlob Marx & Co., of the Columbia Theatre, on Feb. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1900.

Grand Blinn will leave here shortly for New York to meet her son. Holbrook Blinn is a native of this city, and first made his appearance as an amateur here. A luncheon in honor of Blinn was given Jan. 23, by the Bohemian Club. The room was arranged as a bamboo forest, with a tea garden in its depths. Swinging lights, aromatic incense, cherry trees in full bloom, Japanese persimmons, dwarfed evergreens, bronze storks and weird figures with a grotesque Buddha, assisted in the decorations. After being received in the owl room, the guests and invited friends were ushered into the feast hall, when sounding brasses and Japanese music greeted them. All present, except Miss Bates and her friend, Mrs. Lewis, were attired in Japanese costumes. After the luncheon a travesty, entitled "The Shattering of the Dogs," was given, with the host and others of local talent in the principal roles.

FROM OTHER POINTS.

Business Reported Good From All Points.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Hie & Behman's bill will cease to perform on Sunday night, Feb. 5. On Monday night, 6, the policy of the house will be changed to the presentation of traveling combinations. These managers will retain the management and the house will continue to be known as Hie & Behman's. The opening attraction will not be announced for a few days, but it is presumed one of Klaw & Erlanger's big productions will be selected. Sunday was cold, and Monday it snowed, making an unpleasant combination for pleasure showing. Nevertheless the customary big turnouts were in evidence Sunday afternoon and evening. William H. Crane, in "Business is Business," was the Monday novelty opening at Powers, while "The Girl and the Bandit" at the Studebaker. Richard Mansfield, at the Grand, and William Gillette, at the Illinois, continued. Ada Rehan opened her Garrick engagement Monday night, in "The Taming of the Shrew."

"Girls Will Be Girls" was the Sunday night novelty, packing McVicker's to the limit and pleasing immensely. The popular price combination theatres and vaudeville houses attracted their usual capacity business Sunday afternoon and evening. Vanity Fair tested the seating capacity of the Folly, and the Imperials filled the "Procedero to the Limit." Sam T. Jack's had two overflowing houses. On Tuesday in Englewood "The Devil's Auction" attracted capacity business to the Marlowe. Our four dramatic stock houses were well patronized.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—Good business all along the line prevailed last night, weather and good attractions combining in bringing out theatregoers in force. "The Clingales" opened at the Garrick, its first performance here, and delighted a filled house.

Julia Marlowe and E. H. Sothern presented "Hamlet" at the Broad, in a beautiful manner. Andrew Mack opened at the Walnut, in "The Way to Kenmare," and delighted a house full of admirers. The audience which filled the Opera House applauded the performance of "Love's Lottery."

Continuations were: "Mrs. Black is Back" at the Chestnut; "Smiling Island" at the Casino and "The Old Homestead" at the Park. All did nicely, while other combination houses were not neglected.

The stock houses had their usual quota, and a charming vaudeville array filled Keith's. Good offerings at the burlesque houses played to profitable business, and the rest of the list fared equally well.

BOSTON, Jan. 24.—Openings last night were brilliant. James K. Hackett, in "The Fortunes of the King," had an auspicious opening at the Tremont. At the Boston, "The Two Orphans" had a good start. Louis Mann, in "The Second Fiddle," filled the Park. Lulu Glasser, at the Colonial, in "A Madcap Princess," was greeted by a big audience. John Drew, in "The Duke of Killarney," at the Hollis, and Wright Lorimer, in "The Shepherd King," at the Majestic, continued to capacity. "Checkers" continued at the Globe to good business. "Alone in the World," at the Grand Opera House, drew well. Stock, vaudeville and burlesque houses were packed.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 24.—Lawrence D'Orsay scored in "The Earl of Pawtucket," at the Willis Wood Sunday night. A big matinee and an 8 P. M. night house greeted "Pals," at the Grand. Corbett, Davis and McCauley were cordially received. Two of the usual capacity houses saw and enjoyed the new vaudeville bill at the Orpheum, Herrmann being the headliner. The Gillis was packed twice to see "The Child Slaves of New York." At the Auditorium "The Hills of California" pleased. The Reilly and Woods Company burlesqued to satisfactory business at the Century.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 24.—"Ben Hur" opened to tremendous business at the Grand, and will repeat its last phenomenal record run. Sunday bills all drew big houses, including Nannette Comstock, in "The Crisis," at the Walnut Street; "The Dangers of Working Girls," at Heuck's; "Wedded and Parted," at the Lyceum, and the foreboding Stock Co.'s presentation of "The Cherry Pickers," at Robinson's. Vaudeville at the Columbia, and the American Burlesquers at the People's, formed a menu that was appreciated by large turnouts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—At C. Goodwin opened at the National in "The Usurper" to a full house. Eleanor Robson, in "Merry Mary Ann," had a warm welcome at the Columbia, and the house was crowded. Nat M. Willis, in "A Son of Rest," packed the Lafayette. Blinn's Across the Pacific had a capacity audience at the Academy. Rose Stahl and company and several other fine teams filled Chase's twice. Noble's Knickerbockers were greeted by full houses at the Lyceum afternoon and night.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 24.—The Alhambra has another big winner this week in Billy B. Van, in "The Errand Boy," and two capacity houses witnessed the opening performances. At the Academy the Thanhouser Company appeared, with success, in "The Altar of Friendship." At the Lyceum, the Wachner Players put on "Johannsefuerer," to a well filled house. Maxine Elliott, in "Her Own Way," opened to a fine house Monday at the Davidson. Rice & Barton's Big Gaiety Co. turned people away at both opening performances.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 24.—"The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast" opened at Macaulay's to a house packed to the doors. "The Strollers," at the Masonic, drew a big audience. "The Wolf's Paradise," at the Avenue, Clark's Runaway Girls, at the Bucknagh, and vaudeville, at Hopkins, opened Sunday to big houses.

WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee.—Manager O. F. Miller, of the Alhambra, had a highly successful week Jan. 15-21. "The Seminary Girl" packing them in. Ruth Pebles, Edward Clark and Knute Erickson were excellent. Billy B. Van week of 22, and "Shadows of a Great City" 29 and week.

ACADEMY.—"The Village Postmaster" was presented by the Thanhouser Stock Co. week of 16, Albert Brown carrying off the honors. Manager Edwin Thanhouser offers "The Altar of Friendship" week of 23, and "Sue of Lone Farm" week of 30.

BIJOU OPERA HOUSE (John R. Pierce, resident manager).—"The White Tigeress of Japan" did splendidly week of 15. "After Midnight" 22 and week. "The Sign of the Cross" follows.

DAVIDSON.—House was dark the past week. Manager Sherman Brown has Maxine Elliott 23-25, Virginia Harned 26-28. "A Girl from Dixie" 29, Chas. Harned 30-Feb. 3.

PAST.—Manager Leon Wachner put on "Johannsefuerer" Sunday, 22. A triple bill Wednesday, 25. Elks Minstrels 31.

STAR.—Rice & Barton's Big Gaiety Co. week of 22, the Vanity Fair Co. week of 29. Manager Frank R. Trotterman was slated out the big business done the past week by the Tiger Lilies.

CRYSTAL.—Business is good. Manager F. B. Winter offers for week of 23: Baby Gladys, the Three Rays, Van Fossen and McCauley, the Marshall and Lorraine and Hines Kimball Trio.

GRAND.—People week commencing 23: Prof. Bilyek and educated sea lions, Ferguson and Passmore, James Wetzler, Blanche Lewis and Whelan and Searls. Manager S. R. Simard reports fine business.

NOTES.—"The Seminary Girl" broke house record at the Alhambra for this season. James Kyrle MacCurdy, who has "The Old Clothes Man" on the road, met with a painful accident in Chicago last week. In falling on the street he broke his left arm above the elbow. Reports indicate that the show has made a success. Mr. MacCurdy has had the Star-Havlin circuit opened to him. Reginald Parry, who has been doing good work with the Thanhouser Co., has been advanced to assistant stage director of the company.

LUCILLE SPINNEY

Made her first pronounced impression as Editha, in "Editha's Burglar," at the Bijou Theatre, Boston, her birthplace, when she was barely seven years old. She then played a succession of child parts, achieving success in all and cast for incomes at the Castle Square Theatre with J. H. Gilmore. She was next a member of Augustin Daly's Co., New York, and after his death appeared in the road production of "The Great Ruby," understudying Rose Coghlan. When the latter was taken ill at the Fourteenth Street Theatre she assumed the role, and was highly praised by the press. A summer season with the Frederick Bond Stock Co., Albany, brought new laurels. Following this she was seen as Agnes Assidy, in "The Parish Priest," with Daniel Sweeney, winning unstinted praise from coast to coast, closing to join the Peak's Island Stock Co., Portland, Me., where she played leads and ingenues. A season with the James Nell Stock Co., on the Pacific coast and Honolulu, was followed by her engagement with Amelia Bingham, with whom she appeared successfully at the Bijou Theatre, New York City, in "Lady Margaret," "The Climbers," and in "A Modern Magdalen." Proving her claim to versatility, she appeared for two seasons at the Wilfred Clark and company, in vaudeville, playing ingenues and character parts with unvarying success. Then a season with the Castle Square Stock Co. called forth great praise from the local press. At present she is a member of the Grand Opera Stock Co., Memphis, Tenn.

Alexander Pollock, who has been plotting Channing Pollock's "A Game of Hearts" through the country for the past two seasons, has signed with the Shuberts to manage "The Runaways." Mr. Pollock joins the company in Memphis, Tenn.

A. E. Brandt, business manager of "A Funny Side of Life" Co., is ill at the Lebanon Hospital, New York City, with what is supposed to be a case of locomotor ataxia. He was taken sick in Wheeling, W. Va.

Proctor's Twenty-third Street
tre. (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).

—Capacit is the motto of the Pastor, manager. The house is packed up to the top of the house, and the bill is invariably lived up to, and the excellence of the bill Jan. 23 caused an overflow. Genaro and Bailey, in their absurd "Cigar Case," headed the bill and held strong attention. Stanley and ever work, both the act and in their dancing specialty, Lawrence and Harrington, in "Inchless," presented a new act. With the old Bowery boy and tough girl dance. They always play to better their work, and success is in amusing talking, singing and dancing act, scored heavily, and deservedly.

—The Orpheus Trio are favorites and "Comedians" greeted and encoored uproariously. Al. Harleton, "The Stringtown Yip," was a cleverly constructed character actor, and nestled snugly in the good reviews. In "Lillian Russell," Mosh's bull terriers, one of the cleverest and most well-trained canine acts before the public, goes well, and Mr. Mosher deserves great credit for his capable and kindly handling of his actors. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Linton, "The House of Mystery," well refined and excellent burlesque dancing act. Zano, "The Little Liliere," American maricaria, worked in a clever manner. Enorita El Salto, Mexican hand balancer; Cole and Clemens, in "My Uncle's Visit"; Fields and Dupree, in their German sketch, and the good gaggle and hoop manipulation, and the Krys, in song and dance, completed the program programme including camera pictures and the viatograph.

American Theatre (Him, Pringle & Fringers) —The "Ham and I" commenced its second and last week Jan. 23. Queen of the White Slaves' 20.

Fourteenth Street Theatre (J. Wesley Josephent, manager).—"The Forbidden" began its second and closing week Jan. 23. Nick Nib and King follows 30.

Casino (Sam S. and Sam Shubert, managers).—Lillian Russell, in "Lady Teazle," continues successfully, commencing her fifth week Jan. 23.

Empire Theatre (Charles Frohman, manager).—Madeirams commenced her fifth week, and last fortnight, "A Little Minster." Jan. 23, to capacity house.

Garrick Theatre (Charles Frohman, manager).—Arnold Daly, in "You Never Can Tell," entered his third successful week Jan. 3.

Princess Theatre (Sam S. Shubert, manager).—Edward Terry entered his third and last week Jan. 23, in "Sweet Lavender." He presents "Love in Idleness" 30.

Harlem.—At the Harlem Opera House (Alex. Lichtenstein, manager). "The County Chairman" plays here Jan. 23-28. A large advance sale is reported, and the house was crowded on the opening night. Next week, Edna May.

WEST END (George A. Blumenthal, manager).—"Under Southern Skies" opened for a week's stay and was well received. Next week, the Etelinal (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—MORRIS HEATROSE, in "Texas" was well presented 23, and met with a royal reception. The cast is a cableable one and is headed by Robert Connors and Florence Lester, whose good work found favor. Next week, Me. Him and I.

SHEPHERD SQUARE (George A. Blumenthal, manager).—"A Decadent Chance" opened to a crowded house 23, and was recorded a warm welcome. It is one of the best presented melodramas playing this house. Next week, "Alone in the World."

FIFTH STREET THEATRE (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—"Robert Emmet," with most of the original scenery and stage effects, drew packed houses at both performances 23. The play was well presented by a strong cast, headed by Charles and Adams, Campbell, Troba, Freres, Griff and Mozart, and Hurtig, manager).—The house was packed from top to bottom both afternoon and evening 23. The bill includes: Trosk and Gladstone, the Etelinal Bros., Maude and Cahill, and Orlie Williams and Gail Hawthorne and E. Murphy, Blanche Nichols and Co., Lessell Trio, Hoey and Lee and the Obersteier troupe.

GOTHAM (Sullivan & Krans, managers).—"The Blossoms" came direct from downtown house, where they had been successful a week, and the house was well filled at both performances 23. The show has pretty women, fine costumes and bright musical numbers. Next week, the Thoroughbreds.

BROADWAY (Eric Vanover & Adams, managers).—"Business continues to improve." The Lion Onion Galety Girls Co. is the attraction this week, and it was well received. "Life in the Wild West" was full of dash and pleased. The olio: Marie West Barkers, Pat Witte, Chicago Comedy Quartette and Hall and his girls. Next week, Watson's Cozy Corner Girls.

BROOKLYN.—At the Montauk (Isabel Sinn Hecht, manager) Edna May, in "The School Girl" Jan. 23-28. Last week Wm. Ravensham packed the house. "Charles Wyndham and Mary Moore next."

"The Burgomaster" 23-28. The company is a large and capable one, and is headed by Oscar L. Flgman. Last week, "His Las Dollar" did big business. George Primrose Minstrels next.

WHEELING (Charles and Adams, managers).—"The Lilliputians 23-28. Dan McAvoy, "Park Adams Sawyer."

"Quincy (Wm. Hyde, manager).—"A Midnight Marriage" 23-28. Last week, "Queen of the South Sea" did big business. Next week, "The Child Wife."

BRONX (Mary G. Spooner, manager).—"After a record breaking week, which "Zaza" made 16-21, "All the Comforts of Home" is presented 23-28. Cecl Spooner, in the leading role, does good work, while the others of the company are seen to advantage. Next week, "Joan of Arc."

COLUMBIA (C. P. Weis, manager).—"The Sign of the Four" is the opening attraction 23-28. The piece is presented by a very comfortable players, who played the same roles. Last week set records ruled. Next week, "Tennessee's Partner."

OPHEUM (Percy G. Williams, manager).—John T. Kelly and company, in "Seastor McPhie," head the bill this week 23-28. Charles T. Aldrich, member of a troupe of eight, supports Stunt and Buckley. Victor Moore and Emma Littlefield, the Wilton Brothers, Findley and Burke, Marion Garson, Carmell and Morris and the viatograph.

HYDE & BERNARD'S (Nick Norton, manager).—"The Henker Sisters," featuring dancers, head the bill. Managers are James Thornton, Lewis McCord and company, Grand Opera Trio, Three Jacksons, Hill and Whitaker, Lavander and Tomson, Les Dahlians and Pierce and Malizee.

KENEYS (Frank A. Keeney, manager).—"The Broadway Masquerades" headed by Edward Harrison and company, in a new musical comedy sketch, "The Simple Life." Others are: John F. Archer's Philippine Girls, Yankee Comedy Four, Harding and Ah Sid, Lyle and Hughes and Hazelton, Love and Browne, Percy and Woodford and the Keeneyscope.

WATSON'S COZY CORNER (W. R. Watson, manager).—"The Broadway Masquerades" 23-28. Two burlesques, "A Night at the Raven's Rest" and "Under the Ambusher Bush," the bold ones who are led by Miss Austin Davis and Gus Adams. Medallion Trio, Josephine, Gus and Lola Milton, Daly and Reno, Lou Austin Davis, Adams and Drew, the Sisters Bernard and Arno Koch.

ST. MARK'S (Sam S. Shubert, manager).—"The New York Stars 23-29, in the two act musical farce, "Stolen Sweets."

CHUNG LING SOO

He said I Couldn't, but I DID.

THE ORIGINAL

CHUNG LING SOO, Marvelous Chinese Conjurer,

Who has been mystifying British audiences for the past five years, and is now playing the second engagement of three months at the London Hippodrome, in a sensational magic show, was challenged by Ching Ling Foo, from the Empire Theatre, London, for £1,000, to perform Ching Ling Foo's tricks. CHUNG LING SOO most successfully accomplished these tricks on Saturday, Jan. 7, 1905, at the WEEKLY DISPATCH Office, London, where the challenger and his money failed to put in an appearance, and have not since been heard of.

READ WHAT THE BOSTON PAPERS SAY: The Jackson Family, at the Howard, are billed as "The Greatest Troupe of Bicycle Riders the Stage has ever known." Judging from their work last night and the tremendous applause they received we do not hesitate to say that they are all masters of the bicycle. You could take all the other trick riders on Earth, pick out seven of them, you wouldn't have a team to compare with the Jacksons. See them and then when anyone starts talking about trick cyclists to you you'll put on a wise look and say: "Did you see the Jacksons?"

MISSOURI.

St. Louis.—Although all of the bills announced for the current week are interesting one in particular will be noteworthy—the appearance of Annie Russell, in "Brother Jacques," at the Olympic. At the Garrick J. J. Shubert announces that on account of the success of Dave Lewis, in "The Royal Chef," this bill will continue for some time to come. "The Street Singer," with Florence Hindley, will appear at the Grand; "The Prince of Pilsen," with the Imperial, Wm. Bonelli, in "An American Gentleman," will be the offering at the Crawford; last year's big hit, Lottie Williams, in "Only a Shop Girl," at the Haymarket; "From Rags to Riches," at the Haymarket; and Clark's Runaway Girls at Reichenbach's Standard.

OLYMPIC (P. Short, manager).—Annie Russell, will be seen here in "Brother Jacques," Jan. 23-28. Miss Russell will be welcomed with enthusiasm. Last week, Virginia Harwood, in "The Lady Shore," Miss Harwood, who never appeared more beautiful, did some splendid work in the title role, and her voice is most appealing and mellifluous. She was supported by a magnificent company, headed by Robert Lorraine and John Blair. The play was regarded with favor and the opinion expressed that Miss Harwood has at last a worthy vehicle. Good business. William Gillette 20 and week.

THE PRINCE OF PILSEN (J. J. Shubert, acting manager).—"The Prince of Pilsen," 22-28. Cecilia Loftus, in "The Serio-Comic Governor," did fair business. Otis Skinner next.

GARRICK (J. J. Shubert, resident manager).—"The Sprightly Royal Chef," entered upon its third week 22. Thanks are due the Messrs. Shubert for our introduction to dr. Dave Lewis. The show is playing to splendid business. Florence Hindley, William Selby, Stella Tracey, Joseph Welch and Belle Miller and Lorraine were Robert Lorraine and John Blair. The play was regarded with favor and the opinion expressed that Miss Harwood has at last a worthy vehicle. Good business. William Gillette 20 and week.

water curtain, theatrical managers thought it best to have the apparatus operated by a mechanical device controlled by the stage fireman. The new code makes it obligatory upon the part of all theatrical managers to make their aisles at least 2 feet 6 inches in width at the narrowest part, increasing in width two inches for every five running feet. The aisles usually average thirty feet in length, which will give them a width of 3 feet 6 inches at the entrance. The new ordinance also provides for two exits or entrances to the first floor, each to be five feet in width for first 300 seating capacity, and an additional six inches for each 100 above that number. This will give six foot exits for theatres with a seating capacity of 500 on the first floor. It also calls for an exit on each side of the balcony and gallery of all theatres, each to be at least five feet in width; also two stairways must be provided leading from the balcony and gallery in all theatres. The stairways leading from the galleries must be at least 3 feet 6 inches in width, and the stairways leading from the balconies at least 3 feet in width. The new code also provides for fire exits in all theatres, and no provision against the use of non-fireproof scenery by traveling companies.

MARK C. LEWIS is here with "The Royal Chef," Joseph Lamont, a popular and prominent member of the Olympic Theatre orchestra, is dead. His funeral, 18, was the occasion of an immense gathering of theatrical and social friends. The German Tyrolean Alps have compromised their claim with the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Co. for the sum of $40,000. Harry S. Alward was here with Cecilia Loftus. Manager James J. Hannerty, of the Century Theatre, author of the "Hannerty Idea," adroitly, is doing some clever work in the Century and Olympic programmes. Nearly every player in town was present at the Friday professional matinee of "The Royal Chef," at the Garrick. Stella Tracey introduced for the first time her imitation of Ida Henery, the London concert hall singer. "Parade" was the hit of the evening. March 5-12. Jeddies-Pawson-Baette recital, Arcade Hall, 16, had fair business. A memorial was drafted by the Contemporary Club upon the death of the late Theodore Thomas. Richard Spamer, press agent of the Olympic Theatre, on the unique idea of placarding the bill posters with excerpts from the criticisms of local critics against his show. "The Royal Chef," Miss Harwood was unable to appear at the Monday night performance, 16, because of a sprained ankle. The house was therefore dark. The members of "The Royal Chef" Co. were entertained at dinner by the officials of the Laclede and Backus companies. The Visayan and Olympic companies in the Philippine Exposition at the World's Fair, left for their island home 18. Ben M. Jerome, the composer of "The Royal Chef" music, is directing the orchestra. The Mendelssohn Musical Society will continue to direct the orchestra. Hon. Clarence Buskirk lectured 15 at Olympic. Good business.

KANSAS CITY.—The annual convention of the Implement Dealers Association was held here last week, and all the theatres got some extra money. The Grand and Orpheum were bought outright for Wednesday night, and the Grand was also bought out for Tuesday night.

WILLIS WOOD (Woodward & Burgess Amusement Co. managers).—"The Girl from Kay's" last week had numerous admirers. This week, Lawrence D'Oyly, in "The Earl of Pawtucket," "The American Woman" 29-Feb. 1, Tim Murphy 24.

GRAND (Hudson Judah, managers).—"Last week Florence Hindley, in "The Street Singer," had big business. Miss Hindley scored, as did George Pancoff, Bigelow Cooper, Guy Lewis and Anne Leonard. This week, James J. Corbett, Hal Davis and Inez Macneily, in "Rags," and next week, "The Seminary Girl."

ORPHEUM (Martin Beck, general manager).—"Last week's bill was a good one and drew good houses. Bill this week: Webb's head and eyes, Herburn, the great one, Sam Keeley & Co., Sam Elford, Ford and Wilson, Shock Bros. and Charlotte Ravenscroft. GILLIS (E. S. Brigham, manager).—"Last week, Lottie Williams, in "Only a Shop Girl," pleased immensely and drew big houses. This week, "The Child Slave of New York," and next week, the Russell Bros.

AUDITORIUM (Woodward & Burgess Amusement Co. managers).—"Last week, "Sherlock Holmes" drew good houses. Erroll Dunbar was very good. This week, "The Hills of California," and next week, "The Smart Set."

THEATRE (Joseph Barrett, manager).—"Last week, the Gay Masqueraders drew well filled houses. This week, Kelly and Wood's Big Show, and next week, the World Beaters. CLIFFTON (The Woodward Stock Co. will take possession of Tootle's Theatre, St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 29, as the Woodward & Burgess Amusement Co. have secured a lease on the theatre for the Orpheum Co. The stock company is now playing at St. Louis, Ia. It will be transferred to St. Joseph, opening with "The Lost Paradise," and continuing indefinitely, changing the bill twice a week. The prices will be 10 and 25 cents.

WILL H. CLINE, dramatic editor of the "Journal," has accepted a position as general manager of Inness' Road, which opens its season April 1, in Chicago. Kansas City will soon have another theatre. The building at 1112-1114 Walnut Street, now occupied by Nelson's shop house, down stairs and a billiard room up stairs, has been leased by the Helms, the present owners of Electric Park. Remodeling will take place at once. A balcony will be put in and the seating capacity is estimated about one thousand. The stage will be constructed heat of an ordinary stage lamp or some other accidental cause and create panic in a crowded house. In place of the automatic sprinkler the proposed code provides for a lever in the hands of the stage fireman. At present, it was intended to have the water curtain ignited by a fuse, but this plan was dropped when Frank Tate, of the Columbia Theatre, called the attention of the legislators to the fact that the fire might not be in the neighborhood of the lighting fuse. Instead of waiting on a fire to start the

ST. JOSEPH.—At the Lyceum (C. U. Philley, manager) "Princess Chic," Jan. 12, with Sophie Brandt, had good business. Roselle Knott did fair business 13. Florence Hindley drew a fair house 14. "No Wedding Bells for Her" pleased 15. "Sergeant Killy" 20. "An American Woman" 21. Murray and Mack 22.

CRYSTAL (Fred Cosman, manager).—"Bill week of 16, with Anna Abbott as headliner, had S. R. O. Others are: Gardner and Gold, Sam E. Sloan, Hank Adams, Tom Heffron, Allyn and moving pictures. The aisles used by Martin Beck, general manager. Business was good, week of 15, with Wolfing's dogs and horses, Ford and Wilson, Shock Bros., Irene Franklin, Whalen and Searl, and Fox and Foxe.

MINI-HURSE (from Jersey) last week had good business.

CLEVELAND.—Unless Evanston, under the Brannock law, should vote "dry," Cincinnati will have a new Dreamland on Brewster Avenue in that suburb, beyond Walnut Hills, next season. The Robert F. Walter circuit of amusement parks has secured twelve acres of ground and expects to be ready to play by May 22. Manager Walter is here and plans to have a circus, vaudeville theatre, "Fire and Flames," Johnstown Flood and Tyrolean Village within his park, which will represent an investment of nearly one-third of a million dollars. A playground for children will be attached. The project has aroused Evanston people who want to block the scheme if possible, by prohibiting, by vote, the sale of liquors in the district. A lagoon, with Venetian gondollers, is a water feature that hasn't appeared to the temperance folk.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (Harry Rainforth and John H. Haylin, managers).—"The coming of 'Ben Hur,' the great Kiew & Erlanger spectacle, Jan. 23, was preceded by a remarkable advance sale. The house was packed the day of the engagement. William H. Crane was seen last week in his new play, "Business is Business." Katherine Gray and Harriet Otis Dollenbaugh added strength to a satisfactory cast. Business ruled good.

WALTON STREET (Theatrical Co. C. Anderson, manager).—"Nanette Comstock is coming 23, in "The Crisis." The season of "The Runaways" was most interesting and prosperous, and Arthur Dunn feasted on help advanced. The Reliance are here, and he confessed that he did. Eunice Earle was as pleasing as ever, while Florence Martin and Helen Carr were newcomers who were well received. Nixon & Zimmerman's "The Strollers" 29.

COLUMBIA (Theatrical Co. C. Anderson, manager).—"Winona Shannon is headlined for the bill 22, in "His Long Lost Child." Techow's performing cats, Canfield and Carleton, Duffy, Sawtelle and Duffy, the St. Oge Brothers, Fox Society, Belles, Wynne Winslow and Gillman and Murray are here, and booked. Last week found Dorothy Russell, daughter of Lillian Russell, in the public eye. Her act is dainty and she is a pretty little creature who will win. Lydia Barry, too, is a good singer. The next week, Elizabeth Murray was welcomed. In fact, the whole bill was good and deserved the big business.

HEUCK'S OPERA HOUSE (Heuck, Fennessy & Stair, managers).—"A H. Wood's Dangers with Working Girls" he will on 22. Last week Gus Hill's attraction, "McFadden's Flats," did a splendid business and introduced such clever fun makers as Billy Barry Jr., the Otto Brothers and the Specks. Gusie Nelson, Lizzie Conway and a pretty chorus helped to make the bill a success.

LYCEUM THEATRE (Heuck, Stair & Fennessy, managers).—"Wedded and Parted," put on by Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction 22, following a week of Pierce Kingsley's "The Cherry Pickers." The attraction, suggested by Percy G. Williams, is a comedy with successive whoops. Ethel Milton was charming as Nell. Howard Hall, in "The Wolf's Paradise," 29.

ROBINSON'S OPERA HOUSE (George F. Fish & Coughlin, managers).—"The Forepaugh Stock Co. will stage Joseph Arthur's military play, "The Cherry Pickers." Last week the company tried comedy, and made good in Willie Collier's old success, "The Man from Mexico." John J. Farrell played Ben Hur in the Eugene O'Neill play, an artistic Nettle Mages, Gilbert Ely, W. Carr, Albert Sackett, Louise Kent and Frederick Forrester were all happily cast. The audiences were very large. "When We Were Twenty-one" 29.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE (Hubert Heuck, manager).—"The American Burlesquers, with Lottie Gilson, are due 22. Last week Clark's Runaway Girls burlesqued the burlesques they had put on, and did so badly they were superlatively good. The Burlesques were the features of the olio. The Blue Ribbon Girls 29.

GOSPEL OF THE LOBBY.—Violet Pearl (Violet Smith) came on from the Weber-Ziegfeld chorus, in New York, and was married to W. S. Meekat of "The Runaway Girls." The ceremony took place at St. Francis De Sales Church, 17. E. G. Cooke came back to prepare for the engagement of "Ben Hur." Mary Downes McDonough, regions of Pennsylvania and Virginia, singing Hans Binder was the beneficiary at the Auditorium performance of "Gracia Fritz" 19.

CLEVELAND.—At the Lyceum (C. U. Philley, manager) "Princess Chic," Jan. 12, with Sophie Brandt, had good business. Roselle Knott did fair business 13. Florence Hindley drew a fair house 14. "No Wedding Bells for Her" pleased 15. "Sergeant Killy" 20. "An American Woman" 21. Murray and Mack 22.

CRYSTAL (Fred Cosman, manager).—"Bill week of 16, with Anna Abbott as headliner, had S. R. O. Others are: Gardner and Gold, Sam E. Sloan, Hank Adams, Tom Heffron, Allyn and moving pictures. The aisles used by Martin Beck, general manager. Business was good, week of 15, with Wolfing's dogs and horses, Ford and Wilson, Shock Bros., Irene Franklin, Whalen and Searl, and Fox and Foxe.

MINI-HURSE (from Jersey) last week had good business.

CLEVELAND.—Unless Evanston, under the Brannock law, should vote "dry," Cincinnati will have a new Dreamland on Brewster Avenue in that suburb, beyond Walnut Hills, next season. The Robert F. Walter circuit of amusement parks has secured twelve acres of ground and expects to be ready to play by May 22. Manager Walter is here and plans to have a circus, vaudeville theatre, "Fire and Flames," Johnstown Flood and Tyrolean Village within his park, which will represent an investment of nearly one-third of a million dollars. A playground for children will be attached. The project has aroused Evanston people who want to block the scheme if possible, by prohibiting, by vote, the sale of liquors in the district. A lagoon, with Venetian gondollers, is a water feature that hasn't appeared to the temperance folk.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (Harry Rainforth and John H. Haylin, managers).—"The coming of 'Ben Hur,' the great Kiew & Erlanger spectacle, Jan. 23, was preceded by a remarkable advance sale. The house was packed the day of the engagement. William H. Crane was seen last week in his new play, "Business is Business." Katherine Gray and Harriet Otis Dollenbaugh added strength to a satisfactory cast. Business ruled good.

WALTON STREET (Theatrical Co. C. Anderson, manager).—"Nanette Comstock is coming 23, in "The Crisis." The season of "The Runaways" was most interesting and prosperous, and Arthur Dunn feasted on help advanced. The Reliance are here, and he confessed that he did. Eunice Earle was as pleasing as ever, while Florence Martin and Helen Carr were newcomers who were well received. Nixon & Zimmerman's "The Strollers" 29.

COLUMBIA (Theatrical Co. C. Anderson, manager).—"Winona Shannon is headlined for the bill 22, in "His Long Lost Child." Techow's performing cats, Canfield and Carleton, Duffy, Sawtelle and Duffy, the St. Oge Brothers, Fox Society, Belles, Wynne Winslow and Gillman and Murray are here, and booked. Last week found Dorothy Russell, daughter of Lillian Russell, in the public eye. Her act is dainty and she is a pretty little creature who will win. Lydia Barry, too, is a good singer. The next week, Elizabeth Murray was welcomed. In fact, the whole bill was good and deserved the big business.

HEUCK'S OPERA HOUSE (Heuck, Fennessy & Stair, managers).—"A H. Wood's Dangers with Working Girls" he will on 22. Last week Gus Hill's attraction, "McFadden's Flats," did a splendid business and introduced such clever fun makers as Billy Barry Jr., the Otto Brothers and the Specks. Gusie Nelson, Lizzie Conway and a pretty chorus helped to make the bill a success.

LYCEUM THEATRE (Heuck, Stair & Fennessy, managers).—"Wedded and Parted," put on by Sullivan, Harris & Woods, will be the attraction 22, following a week of Pierce Kingsley's "The Cherry Pickers." The attraction, suggested by Percy G. Williams, is a comedy with successive whoops. Ethel Milton was charming as Nell. Howard Hall, in "The Wolf's Paradise," 29.

ROBINSON'S OPERA HOUSE (George F. Fish & Coughlin, managers).—"The Forepaugh Stock Co. will stage Joseph Arthur's military play, "The Cherry Pickers." Last week the company tried comedy, and made good in Willie Collier's old success, "The Man from Mexico." John J. Farrell played Ben Hur in the Eugene O'Neill play, an artistic Nettle Mages, Gilbert Ely, W. Carr, Albert Sackett, Louise Kent and Frederick Forrester were all happily cast. The audiences were very large. "When We Were Twenty-one" 29.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE (Hubert Heuck, manager).—"The American Burlesquers, with Lottie Gilson, are due 22. Last week Clark's Runaway Girls burlesqued the burlesques they had put on, and did so badly they were superlatively good. The Burlesques were the features of the olio. The Blue Ribbon Girls 29.

GOSPEL OF THE LOBBY.—Violet Pearl (Violet Smith) came on from the Weber-Ziegfeld chorus, in New York, and was married to W. S. Meekat of "The Runaway Girls." The ceremony took place at St. Francis De Sales Church, 17. E. G. Cooke came back to prepare for the engagement of "Ben Hur." Mary Downes McDonough, regions of Pennsylvania and Virginia, singing Hans Binder was the beneficiary at the Auditorium performance of "Gracia Fritz" 19.

CLEVELAND.—At the Lyceum (C. U. Philley, manager) "Princess Chic," Jan. 12, with Sophie Brandt, had good business. Roselle Knott did fair business 13. Florence Hindley drew a fair house 14. "No Wedding Bells for Her" pleased 15. "Sergeant Killy" 20. "An American Woman" 21. Murray and Mack 22.

CRYSTAL (Fred Cosman, manager).—"Bill week of 16, with Anna Abbott as headliner, had S. R. O. Others are: Gardner and Gold, Sam E. Sloan, Hank Adams, Tom Heffron, Allyn and moving pictures. The aisles used by Martin Beck, general manager. Business was good, week of 15, with Wolfing's dogs and horses, Ford and Wilson, Shock Bros., Irene Franklin,

"THE MORMON COON"

The funniest of funny coon songs. The hilarious story of a darkey and his assorted wives. One continuous howl of laughter and applause. Clean and equally available for a man or woman artist. By RAYMOND A. BROWNE, author of "COON, COON, COON," Etc., and music by "CLAYTON" SMITH. Be sure and send for this—it is an absolute hit.

The Great Big
SONG
HIT

"A BIT OF BLARNEY"

A Great Number
for Comedy,
Acrobatic
and Dumb Acts.

The reigning vocal and instrumental novelty craze of America and Europe. Sung by the World and his wife!

"A HOUSE TO RENT"

The most original, pathetic and appealing of any story songs ever offered. Short verse, and beautiful waltz refrain. An absolute hit! ALL SLIDE USERS SEND IN YOUR PERMANENT ADDRESS that we may notify you when the magnificent slides for this song are ready. Written by WILLIAM H. PENN and RAYMOND A. BROWNE.

"LOVE IN A PHONOGRAPH"

An absolute novelty. First of its kind. Will sweep the country. Is now the whistling hit of the Drury Lane Pantomime, London, England. Written by WILLIAM H. PENN (composer of "Honeysuckle and the Bee.")

"KISSES"

"CARISSIMA"

"GEORGIE"

The Phenomenal ballad success of 1905. Read what Managers Ruscoe & Holland of Richard & Pringle's Minstrels, say about it: "POSITIVELY THE BEST SONG BALLAD AND CHORUS WE EVER USED." Written by ARTHUR A. and WILLIAM H. PENN.

The only interpolated number in Henry W. Savage's opera, "The Sultan of Sulu." Great concert waltz ballad. Fine opening or closing song for good singing act. By ARTHUR A. PENN.

A quaint coon love song with the swiftest swing you ever heard. The feature of many acts, including "The Champagne Dancers," from the "Silver Slipper." By "CLAYTON" SMITH.

TO PROFESSIONAL SINGERS

WRITE TO OUR HOME ADDRESS, and any of the songs that you need will be sent on receipt of request, credentials, and stamps for mailing. Remember, that we ALWAYS have something NEW for your act, and that ALL of our offices carry a complete stock of our publications.

We also Publish: "THE GIRL YOU LOVE," "ROSES AT TWILIGHT," "LAUGHING WATER."

TO ORCHESTRA AND BAND LEADERS

WE CALL YOUR SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THESE BIG HITS:

"A BIT OF BLARNEY" (Two-step), "OLD VIENNA" (Waltz), "WHAT THE FOND LILLIES WHISPERED" (Entr'acte), "ST. LOUIS RAG" (Two-step), "VIRGINIA FARMER" (Rustic Characteristic).

We also remind you of the FIRST and BEST of its kind, "THE LEADER'S CLUB OF AMERICA." One dollar a year, brass or string. IT SAVES YOU MONEY, and has no strings, or "it" and "ands" attached to it. YOU GET ALL THE NUMBERS WE PUBLISH EACH YEAR.

BLOOD POISON

FACTS of Vital Importance to Every Sufferer of Blood Poison.

FACT ONE—It takes time to tell whether you are permanently cured by a treatment or merely patched up for the present.

FACT TWO—The Cook Remedy Co. is the only company or medical association in existence that has been treating Blood Poison long enough to know that its patients are cured to stay cured.

FACT THREE—The Cook Remedy Co. has many patients who were cured by its magic remedy eighteen years ago who are today sound and well.

FACT FOUR—The Cook Remedy Co. is the largest and the only successful company

FACT EIGHT—Good health is the most important thing in the world to any person.

In the world that makes the cure of Blood Poison a specialty.

FACT FIVE—Patients cured by Cook Remedy Co. are constantly passing successfully the various rigid examinations of the most conservative life insurance companies, and are passing the examinations for admission to the army and navy of the United States.

FACT SIX—If you take Cook Remedy Co.'s treatment under their guarantee you are absolutely sure of a cure or your money back.

FACT SEVEN—Every other method of treatment known to the medical profession gives but temporary relief.

FACT EIGHT—Good health is the most important thing in the world to any person.

The Cook Remedy Co. solicit the most obstinate cases, and challenge the world for a case they cannot cure. This disease has always baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians. For many years the Cook Remedy Co. have made a specialty of treating this disease, and they have unlimited capital behind their unconditional guaranty.

You can be treated at home for the same price and with the same guaranty. With those who prefer to go to Chicago the Cook Remedy Co. will contract to cure them or charge whatever.

Why Hesitate One Day in Beginning this Wonderful Cure!

"THE MORMON COON"

The funniest of funny coon songs. The hilarious story of a darkey and his assorted wives. One continuous howl of laughter and applause. Clean and equally available for a man or woman artist. By RAYMOND A. BROWNE, author of "COON, COON, COON," Etc., and music by "CLAYTON" SMITH. Be sure and send for this—it is an absolute hit.

SONG
HIT
Of Right Now.

"A BIT OF BLARNEY"

A Great Number
for Comedy,
Acrobatic
and Dumb Acts.

The reigning vocal and instrumental novelty craze of America and Europe. Sung by the World and his wife!

"A HOUSE TO RENT"

The most original, pathetic and appealing of any story songs ever offered. Short verse, and beautiful waltz refrain. An absolute hit! ALL SLIDE USERS SEND IN YOUR PERMANENT ADDRESS that we may notify you when the magnificent slides for this song are ready. Written by WILLIAM H. PENN and RAYMOND A. BROWNE.

"LOVE IN A PHONOGRAPH"

An absolute novelty. First of its kind. Will sweep the country. Is low the whistling hit of the Drury Lane Pantomime, London, England. Written by WILLIAM H. PENN (composer of "Honeysuckle and the Bee.")

"KISSES"

"CARISSIMA"

"GEORGIE"

The Phenomenal ballad success of 1905. Read what Managers Russell & Holland, of Richard & Pringle's Minstrels, say about it: "POSITIVELY THE BEST SONG BALLAD AND CHORUS WE EVER USED." Written by ARTHUR A. and WILLIAM H. PENN.

The only interpolated number in Henry W. Savage's opera, "The Sultan of Sulu." Great concert waltz ballad. Fine opening or closing song for good singing act. By ARTHUR A. PENN.

A quaint coon love song with the swiftest swing you ever heard. The feature of many acts, including "The Champagne Dancers," from the "Silver Slipper." By "CLAYTON" SMITH.

TO PROFESSIONAL SINGERS

WRITE TO OUR HOME ADDRESS, and any of the songs that you need will be sent on receipt of request, credentials, and stamps for mailing. Remember, that we ALWAYS have something NEW for your act, and that ALL of our offices carry a complete stock of our publications.

We also Publish: "THE GIRL YOU LOVE," "ROSES AT TWILIGHT," "LAUGHING WATER."

TO ORCHESTRA AND BAND LEADERS

WE CALL YOUR SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THESE BIG HITS:

"A BIT O' BLARNEY" (Two-step), "OLD VIENNA" (Waltz), "WHAT THE FOND LILLIES WHISPERED" (Entr'acte), "ST. LOUIS RAG" (Two-step), "VIRGINIA FARMER" (Rustic Characteristic).

We also remind you of the FIRST and BEST of its kind, "THE LEADER'S CLUB OF AMERICA." One dollar a year, brass or string. IT SAVES YOU MONEY, and has no strings, or "if" and "and" attached to it. YOU GET ALL THE NUMBERS WE PUBLISH EACH YEAR.

BLOOD POISON

FACTS of Vital Importance to Every Sufferer of Blood Poison.

FACT ONE—It takes time to tell whether you are permanently cured by a treatment or merely patched up for the present.

FACT TWO—The Cook Remedy Co. is the only company or medical association in existence that has been treating Blood Poison long enough to know that its patients are cured to stay cured.

FACT THREE—The Cook Remedy Co. has many patients who were cured by its magic remedy eighteen years ago who are today sound and well.

FACT FOUR—The Cook Remedy Co. is the largest and the only successful company

FACT EIGHT—Good health is the most important thing in the world to any person.

In the world that makes the cure of Blood Poison a specialty.

FACT FIVE—Patients cured by Cook Remedy Co. are constantly passing successfully the various rigid examinations of the most conservative life insurance companies, and are passing the examinations for admission to the army and navy of the United States.

FACT SIX—If you take Cook Remedy Co.'s treatment under their guarantee you are absolutely sure of a cure or your money back.

FACT SEVEN—Every other method of treatment known to the medical profession gives but temporary relief.

The Cook Remedy Co. solicit the most obstinate cases, and challenge the world for a case they cannot cure. This disease has always baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians. For many years the Cook Remedy Co. have made a specialty of treating this disease, and they have unlimited capital behind their unconditional guaranty.

You can be treated at home for the same price and with the same guaranty. With those who prefer to go to Chicago the Cook Remedy Co. will contract to cure them or pay railroad and hotel bills, and make no charge if they fail to cure. If you have pimples, eruptions, mucous patches, pains, rheumatism, etc., write for Cook Remedy Co.'s free home treatment book, and learn all about contagious blood poison. If you want medical advice, give a history of your case, and their physicians will furnish all the information you wish without any charge whatever.

Your salvation depends on Cook Remedy Co., and on them alone. They will surely cure you. No other method of treatment will cure you.

Why Hesitate One Day in Beginning this Wonderful Cure!

which produce much ill-health, and shows why pepsins and digestives, stomach washings, opiates, nerve sedatives, strict diet and physical culture fail. Experience proves treating specifically the original underlying causes is the only way to cure permanently constipation, dyspepsia, indigestion, nervousness, headaches or malnutrition and realize a return of health; for to improve the action of the stomach and nutrition of the body will surely build up the whole constitution, and to help the entire system is sure to help every part, every organ and every function. If not convenient for personal consultation, write for my 32-Page book, references, blanks, etc., which will convince of my ability to treat cases successfully by correspondence.

"WHEN THE FROST IS ON THE PUMPKIN, MAGGIE DEAR."

This song is complete proof that Harry Von Tilzer's powers as a writer of rustic ballads are greater than ever, for it contains all the elements of his genius that made possible the success of "Down on the Farm," "When Kate and I Were Coming Thro' the Rye," "Down Where the Swanee River Flows," etc. Wherever it has been sung it has never failed to take rousing encores, for there is a marked scarcity of good rural ballads, and when one is produced the public can't get enough of it. The lyric is by Andrew B. Sterling—that helps, too.
(Illustrated. See note to slide users.)

NOTICE TO SLIDE USERS
All the songs advertised are illustrated by the STEREOPTICON FILM EXCHANGE, and the sets are uniformly $5.00 each. We guarantee them to be the best from every standpoint—ever offered by a publisher to the singing profession, for they are sharp, well posed, beautifully colored, artistic and appropriate.

"DOWN WHERE THE SWANEE RIVER FLOWS"

The tremendous song sensation of the day in rustic ballads. Absolutely the biggest and best of the Harry Von Tilzer story songs, and one that has given the whole country something to sing. Nothing conventional in the lyric, by Andrew B. Sterling—and nothing hackneyed in the melody. A genuine reigning rage with performers and public. If you realize that it is ENCORES that get you work, raise your salary and make your reputation, sing the songs that ARE encores—Among them, "Down Where the Swanee River Flows."

"DOWN AT THE BABY STORE"

"The best descriptive child song ever written," is the way that singers speak of this powerful incident of real life to which Harry Von Tilzer has furnished one of the best melodies he ever produced. Full of that heart-interest that compels the attention and applause of every audience everywhere. Illustrated. (See note to slide users.)
